A delightful new board book teaches babies and toddlers 10 yoga poses inspired by woodland creatures

Yoga Bunny invites you and your little one on a woodland yoga adventure with 10 adorable forest critters. Bunny, raccoon, owl, and deer—the gang’s all here! From Hero and Half Lotus to Cat and Cow, Yoga Bunny leads babies and toddlers through these authentic poses and more, with guidance from some of their favorite animal friends.

With the fourth yoga board book in her wildly popular series, Sarah Jane Hinder offers parents, grandparents, teachers, and daycare providers a wonderful new way to help children increase body awareness, coordination, concentration, and self-soothing. The left-hand page shows an illustration of a child performing a pose, with the facing page featuring a woodland animal in the same pose, along with a playful narrative. Yoga Bunny also includes a complete yoga flow with instructi...

An inspiring fable of one girl’s idea spreading a message of love, acceptance, and togetherness across the globe Emily’s idea started small. Many beautiful ideas do. She folded, doodled, and snipped. But also, like many ideas, Emily’s small idea grew.

This inspiring tale begins when a little girl decides to create a paper chain of dolls. Her idea catches on and spreads far and wide, as children around the world begin to create and share their own.

Emily’s Idea shows children that their ideas matter—and that they have the power to create positive changes all around them. It also teaches the joy of connecting and befriending those who may look different from ourselves, but are more like us than we may think.

Award-winning illustrator Marta Álvarez Miguéns lends her kid-compelling artwork to the adventure. For children ages 4–8.

Includes a make-your-own paper doll chain template page to help children get started on thei...

It was a connection. Between Lou and Evelyn. Between Annabelle and Nico. Between Henry and Leah.
From the sounds of a bird greeting the morning sun to the rising of a silver moon at bedtime, a young girl experiences “a mindful day” from start to finish.

Want to turn a dull day into a wonderful day? Make it a mindful day!

When we slow down and pay close attention, we learn what it means to be mindful. In Mindful Day, early readers follow along as a young girl brings this special kind of attention to the various activities of her day with her family.

Through Hopkinson’s lyrical narrative and Ng-Benitez’s delightful illustrations, kids will explore feelings such as gratitude and love, learn how our breathing can calm our bodies, and discover how remarkable every moment can be when we experience it as fully as possible.

Mindful Day also shares positive examples like being patient, appreciating the little things, and showing empathy, while giving children their first introduction to the life-changing skill of mindfulness.

Deborah Hopkinson is an award-winning author of more than 50 books for young readers. She has a master’s degree in Asian Studies from the University of Hawai’i at Manoa and is the author of Under the Bodhi Tree, a biography of the Buddha (Sounds True, 2018). “Feed me,” the kitten begs.
Baby cries for his breakfast, too.
Little ones have a hard time waiting, don’t they?
Good morning, baby.
Good morning, family.

We place spoons and bowls, shake out some cereal—shake, shake—and sprinkle bright berries on top.
I pop one in my mouth and close my eyes.
I chew slowly. It tastes sweet as summer.
An interactive children’s book that teaches breath awareness and mindfulness while cultivating curiosity and imagination

There’s something we do all day long—even right now—and most times we don’t even notice. Can you guess what it is? It’s breathing!

With The Breathing Book, you’ll discover the power of mindful awareness through a series of breathing practices and engaging activities designed to calm the mind and body, set positive intentions, and spark creativity and imagination.

This interactive book from Drs. Christopher Willard and Olivia Weisser fully engages your senses of sight, sound, and touch with creative illustrations and exercises. You’ll use breath to turn the pages . . . balance the book on your head, hands, or belly . . . trace shapes and labyrinths . . . “reframe” troubling thoughts and feelings . . . send good wishes to people and our planet . . . and enjoy many more activities that can be practiced ag...
