

Stay Sexy & Don't Get Murdered

The Definitive How-To Guide

Karen Kilgariff and Georgia Hardstark

The highly anticipated dual memoir by the beloved hosts of the #1 hit podcast My Favorite Murder

Sharing never-before-heard stories ranging from their struggles with depression, eating disorders, and addiction, Karen and Georgia irreverently recount their biggest mistakes and deepest fears, reflecting on the formative life events that shaped them into two of the most followed voices in the nation.

In Stay Sexy & Don't Get Murdered, Karen and Georgia focus on the importance of self-advocating and valuing personal safety over being 'nice' or 'helpful.' They delve into their own pasts, true crime stories, and beyond to discuss meaningful cultural and societal issues with fierce empathy and unapologetic frankness.

KAREN KILGARIFF is a stand-up comedian and television writer. She was the head writer for the first five years of The Ellen DeGeneres Show, with credits on scripted shows including Portlandia and Baskets. GEORGIA HARDSTARK is a host for the Cooking Channel, a performance storyteller, and a recurring guest monologist on Drunk History.

My Favorite Murder is the hit comedy true crime podcast. Since its inception in early 2016, the show has regularly landed on iTunes' Top 10 Most Downloaded list. The show has sparked an enthusiastic, interactive fan base of self-proclaimed "murderinos" who come out in droves for Karen and Georgia's regularly sold-out nationwide tours.

PRAISE

Praise for Stay Sexy & Don't Get Murdered:

"All the best advice your mother never told you." —Jenny Lawson, #1 New York Times bestselling author of Furiously Happy

"Kilgariff and Hardstark bring a much needed dimension to our current, true crime fever dream—an empathetic, slangy dose of acidic humor, weary compassion, and nervous hope. Their podcast is a joy to listen to and this book captures its energy and hilarity perfectly." —Patton Oswalt, New York Times bestselling author of Silver Screen Fiend

"In addition to being laugh-out-loud funny, smart, and incisive, Stay Sexy & Don't Get Murdered is so interesting and insightful that it made me a) want to be best friends with the authors and b) for real ask them to take me on as a therapy patient. First Kill

A Kirk McGarvey Novel

David Hagberg

First Kill tells the origin story for CIA assassin Kirk McGarvey in this prequel to the New York Times bestselling series

It is the beginning of Kirk McGarvey's career as a CIA black ops officer. Fresh out of the Air Force OSI, he receives his first assignment: assassinate a Chilean general known as the Butcher of Valparaiso, a monster who has tortured and killed more than one thousand dissidents at a soccer stadium in Valparaiso.

McGarvey manages to cross the border over the mountains from Argentina without being discovered, and even makes his way to the general's remote compound. But the odds are stacked against him. Chile's National Intelligence Agency, the ANI, has been warned of his approach and wants him to fail—and someone back home in Washington is working to make sure he does.

For this newly-minted assassin, killing the butcher is only the beginning.

Nottingham

Nathan Makaryk

With the scope and depth of Ken Follett and Edward Rutherford, debut novelist Nathan Makaryk weaves a complex and compelling retelling of the legend of Robin Hood

England, 1191. King Richard is half a world away, fighting for God and his own ambition. Back home, the country languishes, bankrupt and on the verge of anarchy. People with power are running unchecked. People without are growing angry. And in Nottingham, the largest and wealthiest shire in England, a dangerously passive sheriff seems intent on doing nothing.

As the leaves turn gold in the Sherwood Forest, the lives of six people—Arable, a servant girl with a secret; Robin and William, soldiers running from their pasts; Marion, a noblewoman working for change; Guy of Gisbourne, a beleaguered guard captain; and Elena Gamwell, a brash, ambitious thief—become intertwined.

And a strange story begins to spread . . .

Both a gripping historical epic and fascinating deconstruction of the Robin Hood legend, Nathan Makaryk’s Nottingham mixes history and myth into a complex study of power—one that twists and turns far beyond the traditional tale of Sherwood Forest’s iconic thief.

PRAISE

“Who doesn’t like Robin Hood? The list is dangerously long, as revealed in this dark romp through Sherwood Forest.” —New York Times bestselling author Elizabeth Cobbs

Nathan Makaryk is a theater owner, playwright, director and actor, living in southern California. Nottingham is his first novel.

The Shallows

Matt Goldman

"Irreverent and insightful" Nils Shapiro returns in this stellar mystery, fulfilling the expectation that he is "sure to be a fan favorite" (Harlan Coben on Gone to Dust)

In the words of Lee Child on Gone to Dust, "I want more of Nils Shapiro." New York Times and Emmy Award-winning author Matt Goldman happily obliges by bringing the Minneapolis private detective back for another thrilling, stand alone adventure in The Shallows.

Business is booming for private investigator Nils Shapiro and his partners.

Lawyer Todd Rabinowitz is found tied to the dock outside his Minnesota home with a fishing stinger through his jaw. His widow, Robin Rabinowitz, calls Nils to the crime scene and asks him to investigate her husband's savage murder. She's not the only one. Soon, Nils has more job offers than he can handle. Robin's boyfriend. Todd's partner at his law firm. One of Todd's clients, a polarizing Congressional candidate. The local police, in over their heads. The FBI.

Their motives are complicated at best, and as Nils unravels the convoluted case, the bodies pile up. Someone doesn't want him to discover what happened to Todd, and won't stop until they silence Nils as well.

PRAISE

*For Gone to Dust

"Sharp wit, complex characters, and masterful plotting makes Goldman a writer to watch. Irreverent and insightful, private detective Nils Shapiro is sure to become a fan favorite."—Harlan Coben, New York Times bestselling author

"A perfect blend of light touch and dark story—I want more of Nils Shapiro."
—Lee Child, New York Times bestselling author

"Blends his storytelling with irreverent humor. His tough yet vulnerable PI, evocative Minneapolis setting, and clever plot, which features a distinctive crime scene and multiple red herrings, will engage and intrigue."—Library Journal (starred review) Mystery Pick of the Month

New York Times bestselling author MATT GOLDMAN is a playwright and Emmy Award-winning television writer for Seinfeld, Ellen, and other shows. He brings his signature storytelling abilities and light touch to the Nils Shapiro series, which started with his debut novel Gone to Dust. Star Path

People of Cahokia

W. Michael Gear and Kathleen O'Neal Gear

The fourth novel in the Cahokian story cycle, Star Path is an evocative tale about America's greatest pre-Columbian city by New York Times bestselling authors W. Michael and Kathleen O'Neal Gear

Can you say no to a living god?

The answer for Blue Heron, former matron of the Four Winds Clan, is not really.

She and the master thief Seven Skull Shield are sent to far off Cofitachequi, for an old threat has arisen on the other side of the great eastern mountains.

Journeying down the Mississippi to the Tennessee, and then upstream to the Appalachians, Blue Heron's party must face not only the treacherous river, festering resentment in the newly formed colonies, and hostile barbarian tribes, but a more sinister threat travels among them.

A man with his own agenda, who will do anything to destroy Blue Heron.

Star Path, the fourth book in the Gears' Morning Star series, takes the reader out of the great city of Cahokia and into a land of rivers, forests, tribes, and exiled colonies, and shows us the founding of Mississippian civilization—a culture that would thrive and flourish until the arrival of Hernando de Soto in 1539.

PRAISE

"America's prehistory comes to life once again in the capable hands of the Gears, who never fail to strike the perfect balance between cultural fact and magnificent storytelling."—Booklist on Moon Hunt

"Rightfully compared to James Michener, [the Gears'] shrewd grasp of history's resounding relevance raises them to the level of Ken Burns, Nathaniel Philbrick, and Doris Kearns Goodwin as the very best at what they do."—Providence Journal on Sun Born

"The Gears are able to communicate often arcane historical and archaeological information within a compelling fictional format."—Booklist on People of the Morning Star

W. MICHAEL GEAR holds a master's degree in archaeology and has worked as a professional archaeologist since 1978. KATHLEEN O'NEAL GEAR is a former state historian and archaeologist for the U.S. Department of the Interior. She has twice been rewarded for her "outstanding management" of our nation's cultural heritage.

Together, the Gears are the bestselling authors of the North America's Forgotten Past series, which has sold over 7.7 million copies.

Heart of Barkness

Spencer Quinn

The New York Times bestselling series that the Los Angeles Times called “nothing short of masterful”

Chet the dog, “the most lovable narrator in all of crime fiction” (Boston Globe) and P.I. Bernie encounter heartache and much worse in the world of country music. They’re both music lovers, so when Lotty Pilgrim, a country singer from long ago, turns up at a local bar, they drive out to catch her act. Bernie’s surprised to see someone who was once so big performing in such a dive, and drops a C-note the Little Detective Agency can’t afford to part with into the tip jar. The C-note is stolen right from under their noses – even from under Chet’s, the nose that misses nothing – and before the night is over, it’s stolen again.

Soon they’re working the most puzzling case of their career, a case that takes them back in time in search of old border-town secrets, and into present-day danger where powerful people want those secrets to stay hidden. Chet and Bernie find themselves sucked into a real-life murder ballad where there is no one to trust but each other.

PRAISE

“Spencer Quinn speaks two languages—suspense and dog—fluently. Sometimes funny, sometimes touching, and in a few places terrifying ... enchanting [and] one-of-a-kind.” —Stephen King on Dog On It

“Nothing short of masterful.... Sequels are a given, and a must.” —Los Angeles Times on Dog On It

“The most winning detective duo since Shaggy met Scooby.” —Christian Science Monitor

SPENCER QUINN is the bestselling author of the Chet and Bernie mystery series, as well as the #1 New York Times bestselling Bowser and Birdie series for middle-grade readers. He lives on Cape Cod with his wife Diana—and dogs Audrey and Pearl.

The Sum of All Shadows

Eric Van Lustbader

The dramatic conclusion to the bestselling Testament series!

The final Testament novel is here! For millennia, Lucifer—the Sum of All Shadows—has been biding his time, rebuilding his influence. At long last, he is ready to enact his ultimate revenge: to reverse the bitter humiliation of the Fall by leading the annihilation of heaven.

To combat the ultimate destroyer, Bravo and Emma Shaw have recovered the lost Testament, raced around the world, and battled enemies both human and other. Now, caught between enemies and friends and potential enemies, they must find the lost treasure of King Solomon's alchemical gold and cross not only the world but even time itself to stop the infernal army. But even if they are successful, their lives may still be forfeit...

PRAISE

For The Testament series:

“Lustbader is an automatic buy-today-read-tonight author for me—and should be for you.”—Lee Child

“One of the great thriller authors.”—Joseph Finder

“A master who knows how to manipulate the reader in fiendishly exciting ways.”
—Steve Berry

ERIC VAN LUSTBADER is the author of many New York Times bestselling thrillers, including The Testament, First Daughter, Last Snow, and Blood Trust. Lustbader was chosen by Robert Ludlum's estate to continue the Jason Bourne series, and his Bourne novels include The Bourne Legacy and The Bourne Betrayal. Midnight at the Blackbird Café

Heather Webber

A captivating blend of magical realism, heartwarming romance, and small-town Southern charm for fans of Sarah Addison Allen

Nestled in the mountain shadows of Alabama lies the little town of Wicklow. It is here that Anna Kate has returned to bury her beloved Granny Zee, owner of the Blackbird Café.

It was supposed to be a quick trip to close the café and settle her grandmother’s estate, but despite her best intentions to avoid forming ties or even getting to know her father’s side of the family, Anna Kate finds herself inexplicably drawn to the quirky Southern town her mother ran away from so many years ago, and the mysterious blackbird pie everybody can’t stop talking about.

As the truth about her past slowly becomes clear, Anna Kate will need to decide if this lone blackbird will finally be able to take her broken wings and fly.

Heather Webber is the author of more than twenty mystery novels and has been twice nominated for an Agatha Award. She’s a homebody who loves to be close to her family, read, watch reality TV (especially cooking competition shows), drink too much coffee, crochet, and bake (mostly cookies). Heather grew up in a suburb of Boston, but currently she lives in the Cincinnati area with her family and is hard at work on her next book. www.heatherwebber.com

Darkness at Chancellorsville

A Novel of Stonewall Jackson's Triumph and Tragedy

Ralph Peters

A novel of one of the most dramatic battles in American history, from New York Times bestselling, three-time Boyd Award-winning author, Ralph Peters

Centered upon one of the most surprising and dramatic battles in American history, Darkness at Chancellorsville recreates what began as a brilliant, triumphant campaign for the Union--only to end in disaster for the North. Famed Confederate Generals Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson bring off an against-all-odds surprise victory, humiliating a Yankee force three times the size of their own, while the Northern army is torn by rivalries, anti-immigrant prejudice, and selfish ambition.

This historically accurate epic captures the high drama, human complexity, and existential threat that nearly tore the United States in two, featuring a broad range of fascinating—and real—characters, in blue and gray, who sum to an untold story about a battle that has attained mythic proportions. And, in the end, the Confederate triumph proved a Pyrrhic victory, since it lured Lee to embark on what would become the war's turning point—the Gettysburg Campaign (featured in Cain At Gettysburg).

PRAISEPraise For Ralph Peters' Battle Hymn Cycle*"An extraordinary series."—W.E.B. Griffin, New York Times bestselling author of the Clandestine Operations series"[A] deeply researched and beautifully written epic."—Guy MacLean Rogers, author of *Alexander: The Ambiguity of Greatness"The best series of Civil War novels ever written."—William Martin, New York Times bestselling author of The Lincoln Letter

RALPH PETERS, New York Times bestselling author, is a retired U.S. Army officer; a strategist and veteran of the intelligence world; a journalist who appears frequently in broadcast media; and a lifelong traveler with experience in over seventy countries on six continents. Combining years of walking Civil War fields and painstaking research with insight gleaned from his own military career, Ralph Peters tells great American tales in a masterful style.

The Murder List

Hank Phillippi Ryan

A new standalone suspense novel for fans of Lisa Scottoline and B. A. Paris from award-winning author and reporter Hank Phillippi Ryan

Law student Rachel North will tell you, without hesitation, what she knows to be true. She's smart, she's a hard worker, she does the right thing, she's successfully married to a faithful and devoted husband, who is a lion of Boston's defense bar, and her internship with the Boston DA's office is her ticket to a successful future.

Problem is--she's wrong.

And in this cat and mouse game--the battle for justice becomes a battle for survival.

PRAISE

“An exhilarating thrill ride that keeps you turning pages.. Ryan deftly delivers a denouement as shocking as it is satisfying.”—Liv Constantine, bestselling author of The Last Mrs. Parrish and The Last Time I Saw You

For Trust Me

“Mesmerizing! Hank Phillippi Ryan has outdone herself in this taut thriller of damaged lives, uneasy alliances and deadly cat and mouse. Who can you trust indeed? It will take you till the final page to figure out!” —Lisa Gardner

“The tension mounts at a blistering pace, while Ryan dazzles on the page, weaving a sinister story that readers won't be able to put down. A must read!” —Mary Kubica

“A riveting story of guilt...”

HANK PHILLIPPI RYAN has won five Agatha Awards, in addition to the Anthony, Macavity, Daphne du Maurier, and Mary Higgins Clark Award for her bestselling mystery novels. Along with her 34 Emmys and 14 Edward R. Murrow awards, Hank has received dozens of other honors for her ground-breaking investigative journalism. A former president of Sisters in Crime and founder of MWA University, she lives in Boston with her husband, a nationally renowned civil rights and criminal defense attorney.

Assassin's Revenge

Ward Larsen

USA Today bestselling author Ward Larsen's globe-trotting, hard-hitting assassin, David Slaton, returns for another breathless adventure

On a sunny dock in Gibraltar, Slaton returns to the sailboat he shares with his wife and young son to find them missing. The only clue to their whereabouts is a cryptic message: If he wants to see them again, he must eliminate an obscure scientist working for the International Atomic Energy Agency. Slaton races to Vienna to unravel the scheme.

Half a world away, a small team of ISIS operatives arrives in North Korea. It is comprised of two suicidal jihadists, one technician, and the caliphate's only officer with naval experience. Their mission—to reestablish the group's relevance by undertaking a shocking strike against America.

From Europe to North Korea to the Pacific Ocean, Slaton finds himself entangled in a deadly nuclear game. Working against him are a band of suicidal terrorists, supported by a North Korean government that is about to implode. That slate of actors, however, face something even more lethal.

A devoted father and husband—one who happens to be the perfect assassin.

Kill Zone

Kevin J. Anderson and Doug Beason

Acclaimed authors Kevin J. Anderson and Doug Beason collaborate to create a disaster thriller in the vein of Relic and The Poseidon Adventure

Power duo Kevin J. Anderson and Doug Beason team up in Kill Zone, a perilous disaster thriller for the modern age.

Deep within a mountain in Albuquerque, New Mexico, a Cold War-era nuclear weapons storage facility is being used to covertly receive more than 100,000 tons of nuclear waste stored across the US. Only Department of Energy employee, Adonia, and a few others including a war hero, a senator, and an environmental activist, are allowed access to perform a high-level security review of the facilities. But Hydra Mountain was never meant to securely hold this much hazardous waste, and it has the potential to explode, taking with it all of Albuquerque and spreading radioactivity across the nation.

This disaster situation proves all too possible when a small plane crashes at a nearby military base, setting off Hydra's lockdown and trapping Adonia and her team in the heart of the hazardous, waste-filled mountain. Now, the only direction for them to go is deeper into the mountain, through the tear gas and into a secretive area no one was ever supposed to know about.

PRAISE

"A wonderfully imagined, terrifying scenario that reeks of plausibility. It's a game within a game—a thrilling, dangerous quest for the unspeakable." —Steve Berry

"Shines light on the greatest security lapse of our age . . . Fans of Dan Brown and Michael Crichton won't want to miss this high-tech thriller!" —Ward Larsen

KEVIN J. ANDERSON is the #1 international bestselling author of more than one hundred books, fifty-four of which have appeared on bestseller lists. He has won or been nominated for the Nebula Award, the Bram Stoker Award, and the Shamus Award, among others.

DOUG BEASON is a Nebula Award finalist whose fiction has appeared in numerous magazines and anthologies, as well as an expert on National Defense Security and a retired Colonel in the Air Force.

The Peaceful Valley Crime Wave

A Western Mystery

Bill Pronzini

Bill Pronzini's riveting western mystery takes on the modern world with old-fashioned violence, and his Peaceful Valley is anything but...

Nothing much happens in Peaceful Valley, Montana. And that's just how Sheriff Lucas Monk likes it.

Aside from the occasional drunken brawl or minor disturbance out on the reservation, he hasn't had to resort to his fists or sidearm in years.

That is, until mid-October, 1914, when the theft of a wooden cigar store Indian sets off a crime wave like nothing Lucas has ever seen. Teenager Charity Axthelm goes missing, Reba Purvis's housekeeper is poisoned with cyanide Reba is sure was meant for her, and Lucas's gut tells him that this is only the beginning.

It's not long before the first corpse shows up, bringing the peace in the valley to a thundering end.

PRAISEFor Bill Pronzini

"One of the best in the mystery-suspense field."—The Washington Post Book World

"[Nameless] is the classic private-eye hero....He is a remarkable creation."
—Chicago Sun-Times

"The best rock 'n' roll songs are two minutes fifty seconds long, and the best short detective novels are written by Bill Pronzini. In both genres you are drawn in immediately, have a lot of fun, and when it's over, you look ahead to the next time."—The Boston Globe

BILL PRONZINI has been nominated for, or won, every prize offered to crime fiction writers, including the Grand Master Award from the Mystery Writers of America. The Detroit Free Press said of him, "It's always nice to see masters at work. Pronzini's clear style seamlessly weaves [storylines] together, turning them into a quick, compelling read." He lives and writes in California, with his wife, crime novelist Marcia Muller.

A Dog's Journey Movie Tie-In

A Novel

W. Bruce Cameron

Soon to be a major motion picture, the New York Times and USA Today bestselling direct sequel to the international sensation A Dog's Purpose

Soon to be a Major Motion Picture!

Audiences are invited along on A DOG'S JOURNEY, the next chapter of the beloved bestselling series by author W. Bruce Cameron. The family film told from the dog's perspective serves as the much-anticipated follow-up to the soulful story of one devoted dog who finds the meaning of his own existence through the lives of the humans he teaches to laugh and love.

Directed by Gail Mancuso (TV's Modern Family, Roseanne), A DOG'S JOURNEY is once again produced by Gavin Polone (A Dog's Purpose, Zombieland). Mancuso directs from an adapted screenplay by Cameron & Cathryn Michon and Wally Wolodarsky & Maya Forbes, based on the book by Cameron. The film from Amblin Entertainment and Walden Media will be distributed by Universal Pictures.

A charming and heartwarming story of hope and unending devotion, A Dog's Journey is the moving story of unwavering loyalty and a love that crosses all barriers.

PRAISE

"Readers will devour this wonderful story and cry from beginning to end. Sweet and heartfelt, Cameron likely has another bestseller on his hands."

—Publishers Weekly starred review

"Once again endearing himself to animal lovers, Cameron explores the concept of canine karma with acute sensitivity and exhibits cunning insight into life from a dog's perspective."
