Carry On

Rainbow Rowell

Rainbow Rowell continues to break boundaries with Carry On, an epic fantasy following the triumphs and heartaches of Simon and Baz from her beloved bestseller Fangirl.

Simon Snow is the worst Chosen One who's ever been chosen.

That's what his roommate, Baz, says. And Baz might be evil and a vampire and a complete git, but he's probably right.

Half the time, Simon can't even make his wand work, and the other half, he starts something on fire. His mentor's avoiding him, his girlfriend broke up with him, and there's a magic-eating monster running around, wearing Simon's face. Baz would be having a field day with all this, if he were here -- it's their last year at the Watford School of Magicks, and Simon's infuriating nemesis didn't even bother to show up.

Carry On - The Rise and Fall of Simon Snow is a ghost story, a love story and a mystery. It has just as much kissing and talking as you'd expect from a Rainbow Rowell story - but far, far more monsters.

PRAISE

"Rowell imbues her magic with awe and spectacle. Its a powerful, politically minded allegory about sexual, ethnic and class identity - with a heady shot of teenage lust." —New York Times Book Review

"It's a brilliantly addictive, genuinely romantic story about teenagers who can't be neatly sorted into houses, coping with stress and loss and the confusion of just trying to be who they are. It's as if Rowell turned the Harry Potter books inside out, and is showing us the marvelous, subversive stuffing inside." —Time Magazine

"Full of heart and humor, this fantastical tale is a worthy addition to the wizarding-school genre." —People Magaz...

RAINBOW ROWELL lives in Omaha, Nebraska, with her husband and two sons. She's also the author of Landline, Fangirl, Eleanor & Park, and Attachments.

You Know Me Well

A Novel

David Levithan and Nina LaCour

From award-winning authors David Levithan and Nina LaCour, the story of a friendship forged over the course of one fateful pride week in San Francisco.

Who knows you well? Your best friend? Your boyfriend or girlfriend? A stranger you meet on a crazy night? No one, really?

Mark and Kate have sat next to each other for an entire year but have never spoken. For whatever reason, their paths outside of class have never crossed.

That is until Kate spots Mark miles away from home, out in the city for a wild, unexpected night. Kate is lost, having just run away from a chance to finally meet the girl she has been in love with from afar. Mark, meanwhile, is in love with his best friend Ryan, who may or may not feel the same way.

When Kate and Mark meet up, little do they know how important they will become to each other—and how, in a very short time, they will know each other better than any of the people who are supposed to know them more.

Told in alternating points of view by Nina LaCour, the award-winning author of Hold Still and The Disenchantments, and David Levithan, the best-selling author of Every Day and co-author of Nick and Norah's Infinite Playlist (with Rachel Cohn) and Will Grayson, Will Grayson (with John Green), You Know Me Well is a deeply honest story about navigating the joys and heartaches of first love, one truth at a time.

PRAISE

“You Know Me Well perfectly encapsulates those fraught, end-all-be-all feelings of high-school romance and graduation. The raw emotion of this novel will delight fans of Rainbow Rowell and John Green.” —BookPage

“Both authors excel at writing smart, funny, and realistic dialogue. These are characters to whom readers will relate and want to get to know.” —School Library Journal

NINA LACOUR is the award-winning author of Hold Still, The Disenchantments, and Everything Leads to You. A former indie bookseller and high school teacher, she lives with her family in San Francisco.

DAVID LEVITHAN is the NYT bestselling author of YA novels, including Another Day, Two Boys Kissing, Every Day, Boy Meets Boy, Nick & Norah's Infinite Playlist (with Rachel Cohn) and Will Grayson, Will Grayson (with John Green). By day, he works as an editor. By night, he lives in New Jersey.

Summer Days and Summer Nights

Twelve Love Stories

Edited by Stephanie Perkins

Twelve romantic summer stories by twelve bestselling young adult authors, edited by Stephanie Perkins.

Maybe it's the long, lazy days, or maybe it's the heat making everyone a little bit crazy. Whatever the reason, summer is the perfect time for love to bloom.

Summer Days and Summer Nights: Twelve Love Stories, written by twelve bestselling young adult writers and edited by the international bestselling Stephanie Perkins, will have you dreaming of sunset strolls by the lake. So set out your beach chair and grab your sunglasses. You have twelve reasons this summer to soak up the sun and fall in love.

PRAISE

“Readers will be enticed by more than steamy romance in this volume...Offering a sampling of many different genres, bright and distinct narrative voices, and a generous portion of tender moments, this book has something for everyone who has loved or longs for it.” —Publishers Weekly (starred review)

“There’s not a false note in the whole thing. These big-name authors deliver a collection that scorches as surely as any day in the sun.” —Booklist (starred review)

“This is a star-studded lineup that doesn’t disappoint...An intelligent beach read with heart, soul, and sizzle.” —Kirkus Reviews (starred review)

STEPHANIE PERKINS is the New York Times and international bestselling author of Anna and the French Kiss, Lola and the Boy Next Door, and Isla and the Happily Ever After, as well as the editor of My True Love Gave to Me: Twelve Holiday Stories. She lives with her husband in Asheville, North Carolina.

Firsts

A Novel

Laurie Elizabeth Flynn

In the vein of Easy A, this young adult novel about sex, love, and high school is honest, refreshing, and timely.

Seventeen-year-old Mercedes Ayres has an open-door policy when it comes to her bedroom, but only if the guy fulfills a specific criteria: he has to be a virgin. Mercedes lets the boys get their awkward fumbling first times over with, and all she asks in return is that they give their girlfriends the perfect first time—the kind Mercedes never had herself.

Keeping what goes on in her bedroom a secret has been easy—so far. Her mother isn't home nearly enough to know about Mercedes' extracurricular activities, and her uber-religious best friend, Angela, won't even say the word "sex" until she gets married. But Mercedes doesn't bank on Angela's boyfriend finding out about her services and wanting a turn—or on Zach, who likes her for who she is instead of what she can do in bed.

When Mercedes' perfect system falls apart, she has to find a way to salvage her own reputation—and figure out where her heart really belongs in the process. Funny, smart, and true-to-life, Firsts is a one-of-a-kind young adult novel about growing up.

PRAISE

“Mercedes manages to be both tough and sympathetic, and this look at human connection, female sexuality, and stigma is welcome.”—Booklist

“Debut author Flynn raises worthwhile questions about teenage sexuality and perceived promiscuity.”—Publishers Weekly

“A fearless debut that dares you to question what you really know about that girl.”—Amanda Maciel, author of Tease

“Emotionally charged... Firsts is a powerful coming of age story that tied my heartstrings in knots.”—Caisey Quinn, bestselling author of Leaving Amarillo

LAURIE ELIZABETH FLYNN got hooked on writing in the fourth grade, when she repeatedly bugged her teacher for more paper to write her stories on. She later went to school for Journalism, where the most important thing she learned was that she would much rather write fiction than report the news. Laurie also worked as a model, a job that took her overseas to Tokyo, Athens, and Paris and spurred her obsession with all things fashion. She now lives in London, Ontario, Canada with her husband Steve.

I Am a Secret Service Agent

My Life Spent Protecting the President

Dan Emmett

Adapted from Within Arm's Length for a young adult audience, a rare inside look at the Secret Service from an agent who protected Presidents George H. W. Bush, Bill Clinton, and George W. Bush.

Dan Emmett was just eight years old when President John F. Kennedy was assassinated. The events surrounding the President's death shaped the course of young Emmett's life as he set a goal of becoming a US Secret Service agent—one of a special group of people willing to trade their lives for that of the President, if necessary.

I Am A Secret Service Agent is the essential book on the Secret Service—with stories from some of the author's more high-profile assignments in his twenty-one years of service, where he provided protection worldwide for Presidents George Herbert Walker Bush, William Jefferson Clinton, and George W. Bush. Dan Emmett describes the professional challenges faced by Secret Service agents as well as the physical and emotional toll that can be inflicted on both agents and their families. I Am A Secret Service Agent also shares firsthand details about the duties and challenges of conducting presidential advances, dealing with the media, driving the President in a bullet-proof limousine, running alongside him through the streets of Washington, and flying with him on Air Force One.

With fascinating anecdotes, Emmett weaves keen insight into the unique culture and history of the Secret Service with the inner workings of the White House.

PRAISE

"Controversial." —Inside Edition

"Very moving!" —Jake Tapper, CNN correspondent and New York Times bestselling author of *The Outpost

After a stint in the Marine Corps, DAN EMMETT joined the United States Secret Service, serving on the elite Counter Assault Team before being selected for the most coveted of all assignments in the Secret Service, the Presidential Protective Division. After 21 years as an agent, Emmett retired from the Secret Service and today is an adjunct professor as well as a security consultant for both private industry and the United States government. He lives in Opelika, Alabama.

The Inevitable Collision of Birdie & Bash

Candace Ganger

Birdie never meant to be at the party. Bash should have been long gone. But when they meet, a collision course is set off they may never recover from.

Sebastian Alvaréz is just trying to hold the pieces together: to not flunk out, to keep his sort-of-best friend Wild Kyle from doing something really bad, and to see his beloved Ma through chemo. But when he meets Birdie Paxton, a near-Valedictorian who doesn't realize she's smoking hot in her science pun T-shirt, at a party, an undeniable attraction sparks. And suddenly he's not worried about anything. But before they are able to exchange numbers, they are pulled apart. A horrifying tragedy soon links Birdie and Bash together—but neither knows it. When they finally reconnect, and are starting to fall—hard—the events of the tragedy unfold, changing both their lives in ways they can never undo. Told in alternating perspectives, The Inevitable Collision of Birdie & Bash by Candace Ganger is a beautiful, complex, and ultimately hopeful teen novel that will move you to the very last page.

PRAISE

“Smart, raw, often biting in its reflections of the haves and have-nots, this debut will appeal to fans of John Green’s An Abundance of Katherines... You’ll find yourself not only wanting to (re)study chemistry but learning what you get in life isn’t always what you deserve—sometimes it’s more. [A] must-have for every shelf.”
—Patty Blount, award-winning author of Some Boys

“A stunning and brilliantly crafted debut that peels back layers to the raw and the real. Birdie + Bash = 2 characters impossible not to fall in love with.” —K.M. Walton, author of Empty and Cracked

CANDACE GANGER is a contributing writer for HelloGiggles and obsessive marathoner. Aside from having past lives as a singer, nanotechnology website editor, and world's worst vacuum sales rep, she's also ghostwritten hundreds of projects for companies, best-selling fiction and award-winning nonfiction authors alike. Bad Girl Gone

A Novel

Temple Mathews

A recently deceased girl must solve her own murder in order to escape purgatory.

Sixteen year-old Echo Stone awakens in a cold sweat in a dark room, having no idea where she is or how she got there. But she soon finds out she's in Middle House, an orphanage filled with mysteriously troubled kids.

There's just one problem: she's not an orphan. Her parents are very much alive.

She explains this to everyone, but no one will listen. After befriendng a sympathetic (and handsome) boy, Echo is able to escape Middle House and rush home, only to discover it sealed off by crime scene tape and covered in the evidence of a terrible and violent crime. As Echo grapples with this world-shattering information, she spots her parents driving by and rushes to flag them down. Standing in the middle of street, waving her arms to get their attention, her parents' car drives right through her.

She was right. Her parents are alive—but she's not.

She's a ghost, just like all the other denizens of Middle House. Desperate to somehow get her life back and reconnect with her still-alive boyfriend, Echo embarks on a quest to solve her own murder. As the list of suspects grows, the quest evolves into a journey of self-discovery in which she learns she wasn't quite the girl she thought she was. In a twist of fate, she's presented with one last chance to reclaim her life and must make a decision which will either haunt her or bless her forever.

PRAISE

"Bad Girl Gone will keep you guessing! It sucked me in and didn't spit me out until I'd turned the last page."—Iggy Azalea

Praise for The New Kid:

"This fast-paced, action-packed first novel by veteran Hollywood screenwriter Temple Mathews takes the idea of high school as hell to a whole new level."
—Somewhere Only We Know Blog

TEMPLE MATTHEWS is an author and screenwriter with several films to his credit, including Disney's Return to Neverland, The Little Mermaid 2: Return to the Sea, and Mickey's Once Upon a Christmas. Killing Jesus

A History

Bill O'Reilly & Martin Dugard

The third book in Bill O'Reilly's multimillion bestselling Killing series, Killing Jesus delivers the story of Jesus's crucifixion as it's never been told before.

Sixteen million readers have been thrilled by Bill O'Reilly and Martin Dugard's Killing series, page-turning works of nonfiction that have changed the way we read history.

Now the anchor of The O'Reilly Factor, the highest-rated cable news show in the country, details the events leading up to the murder of the most influential man who ever lived: Jesus of Nazareth. Nearly two thousand years after this beloved and controversial young revolutionary was brutally killed by Roman soldiers, more than 2.2 billion people attempt to follow his teachings and believe he is God. In this fascinating and fact-based account of Jesus's life and times, Julius Caesar, Cleopatra, Caesar Augustus, Herod the Great, Pontius Pilate, and John the Baptist are among the many legendary historical figures who rise up off the page. Killing Jesus not only takes readers inside this most volatile epoch, it also recounts the seismic political and historical events that made Jesus's death inevitable—and changed the world forever.

The Nightingale

Kristin Hannah

From the #1 New York Times bestselling author, an epic novel of love and war, spanning from the 1940s to the present day, and the secret lives of those who live in a small French town.

FRANCE, 1939.

In the quiet village of Carriveau, Vianne Mauriac says goodbye to her husband, Antoine, as he heads for the Front. She doesn't believe that the Nazis will invade France...but invade they do, in droves of marching soldiers, in caravans of trucks and tanks, in planes that drop bombs upon the innocent. When a German captain requisitions Vianne's home, she and her daughter must live with the enemy or lose everything. As danger escalates, she is forced to make one impossible choice after another to keep her family alive.

Vianne's sister, Isabelle, is a rebellious eighteen-year-old girl, searching for purpose with all the reckless passion of youth. While thousands of Parisians march into the unknown terrors of war, she meets G etan, a partisan who believes the French can fight the Nazis from within France, and she falls in love as only the young can...completely. But when he betrays her, Isabelle joins the Resistance and never looks back, risking her life time and again to save others.

The Nightingale tells the stories of two sisters, separated by years and experience, by ideals, passion and circumstance, each embarking on her own dangerous path toward survival, love, and freedom--a heartbreakingly beautiful novel that celebrates the resilience of the human spirit and the durability of women. It is a novel for everyone, a novel for a lifetime.

PRAISE

“Bound to gain the already immensely popular Hannah an even wider audience [...] best-selling Hannah’s new novel is positioned to take the book world by storm.” —Booklist

“[A] hauntingly rich WWII novel about courage, brutality, love, survival - and the essence of what makes us human.” —Family Circle

“Full of emotion and heart.” —Library Journal

“Expect to devour The Nightingale in as few sittings as possible; the high-stakes plot and lovable characters won’t allow any rest until all of their fates are known.” —Shelf Awareness

KRISTIN HANNAH is the New York Times bestselling author of twenty-two novels. A former lawyer turned writer, she is the mother of one son and lives with her husband in the Pacific Northwest and Hawaii.

The Weekenders

A Novel

Mary Kay Andrews

A delightful novel by the New York Times bestselling author of Beach Town.

Some people stay all summer long on the idyllic island of Belle Isle, North Carolina. Others come only for the weekends—and the mix between the regulars and “the weekenders” can sometimes make the sparks fly. Riley Griggs has a season of good times with friends and family ahead of her on Belle Isle when things take an unexpected turn. While waiting for her husband to arrive on the ferry one Friday afternoon, Riley is confronted by a process server who thrusts papers into her hand. And her husband is nowhere to be found.

So she turns to her island friends for help and support, but it turns out that each of them has their own secrets, and the clock is ticking as the mystery deepens...in a murderous way. Cocktail parties aside, Riley must find a way to investigate the secrets of Belle Island, the husband she might not really know, and the summer that could change everything.

PRAISE

“Andrews’ novels are the epitome of relaxing yet involving summer reads, and her latest is no exception... Andrews blends romance, intrigue, and soap-opera-like twists in this entertaining novel about a gossipy beach town.” —Booklist

“Andrews has this ‘perfect beach read’ label down pat — and then some. The Weekenders is not just good, it is beyond good... Summer doesn’t truly begin without a Mary Kay Andrews book in your beach bag, so here is another winner and Top Pick just for you.” —RT Book Reviews (Top Pick, 4 ½ stars)

“One of the many books you'll want to keep in your beach bag this season.” —PopSugar

MARY KAY ANDREWS is The New York Times bestselling author of Beach Town, Save the Date, Ladies' Night, Spring Fever, Summer Rental, The Fixer Upper, Deep Dish, Blue Christmas, Savannah Breeze, Hissy Fit, Little Bitty Lies, and Savannah Blues. A Great Reckoning

A Novel

Louise Penny

The next novel in Louise Penny's #1 New York Times bestselling series featuring Chief Inspector Armand Gamache.

When an intricate old map is found stuffed into the walls of the bistro in Three Pines, it at first seems no more than a curiosity. But the closer the villagers look, the stranger it becomes. Given to Armand Gamache as a gift the first day of his new job, the map eventually leads him to shattering secrets. To an old friend and older adversary. It leads the former Chief of Homicide for the Sûreté du Québec to places even he is afraid to go. But must.

And there he finds four young cadets in the Sûreté academy, and a dead professor. And, with the body, a copy of the old, odd map.

Everywhere Gamache turns, he sees Amelia Choquet, one of the cadets. Tattooed and pierced. Guarded and angry. Amelia is more likely to be found on the other side of a police line-up. And yet she is in the academy. A protégée of the murdered professor.

The focus of the investigation soon turns to Gamache himself and his mysterious relationship with Amelia, and his possible involvement in the crime. The frantic search for answers takes the investigators back to Three Pines and a stained glass window with its own horrific secrets.

For both Amelia Choquet and Armand Gamache, the time has come for a great reckoning.

#1 New York Times bestselling author Louise Penny pulls back the layers to reveal a brilliant and emotionally powerful truth in her latest spellbinding novel.

PRAISE

"Three Pines again proves no refuge in Penny's stellar [The Nature of the Beast]...fans will delight in [her] continued complex fleshing out of characters they have come to love." —Publishers Weekly (starred and boxed)

"[M]agical....Penny is an expert at pulling away the surface of her characters to expose their deeper--and often ugly--layers, always doing so with a direct but compassionate hand." —Kirkus Reviews (starred) on The Nature of the Beast

"More than a simple mystery, Penny's novel peels away the emotional and psychological layers of the inhabitants of Three Pines." —Library Journal (starred) on The Nature of the Beast

Redemption Road

A Novel

John Hart

“Hart has taken it to another level...read this novel.” —David Baldacci

Imagine:

A boy with a gun waits for the man who killed his mother.

A troubled detective confronts her past in the aftermath of a brutal shooting.

After thirteen years in prison, a good cop walks free. But for how long?

And deep in the forest, on the altar of an abandoned church, the unthinkable has just happened...

This is a town on the brink. This is a road with no mercy.

Over 2 million copies of his books in print. Every book a New York Times bestseller. Since his debut bestseller, The King of Lies, reviewers across the country have heaped praise on John Hart, comparing his writing to that of Pat Conroy, Cormac McCarthy and Scott Turow. With each novel Hart has climbed higher on the New York Times bestseller list, with his last two books—The Last Child and Iron House—landing squarely in the top ten. His masterful writing and assured evocation of place have won readers around the world and earned history’s only consecutive Edgar Awards for Best Novel. Redemption Road is John Hart’s most powerful story yet.

PRAISE

“People in publishing have always known that John Hart can flat-out write. His prose conjures comparisons with James Lee Burke in its sultry, melodious alchemy. With Redemption Road Hart has taken it to another level. The prologue is heart-wrenching and the chapters thereafter pull you in like matter to a black hole. Read this novel. And then go back and read all of his others. He’s that good.” — David Baldacci, #1 New York Times bestselling author

"There’s no easier way to say it: Redemption Road is simply great writing." - Brad Meltzer, #1 New York Times Bestselling Author

"John Hart writes like a poet, and I couldn’t put down this novel, an ...

JOHN HART is the author of five New York Times bestsellers, Redemption Road, The King of Lies, Down River, The Last Child, and Iron House. The only author in history to win the best novel Edgar® Award for consecutive novels, John has also won the Barry Award and England’s Steel Dagger Award for best thriller of the year. His books have been translated into twenty-nine languages and can be found in over fifty countries.

Behind Closed Doors

A Novel

B. A. Paris

The New York Times bestseller and runaway UK bestseller, with 30 territories sold world wide, about a seemingly perfect marriage and a terrifying web of deceit.

Jack Angel has looks and wealth; his wife Grace has charm and elegance. He's a dedicated attorney who has never lost a case; she is a flawless homemaker, a masterful gardener and cook, and dotes on her disabled younger sister. Though they are still newlyweds, they seem to have it all. You might not want to like them, but you do. You're hopelessly charmed by the easy and comfort of their home, by the graciousness of the dinner parties they throw. You'd like to get to know Grace better.

But it's difficult, because you realize Jack and Grace are inseparable.

Some might call this true love. Others might wonder why Grace never answers the phone. Or why she can never meet for coffee, even though she doesn't work. How she can cook such elaborate meals but remain so slim. Or why she never seems to take anything with her when she leaves the house, not even a pen. Or why there are such high-security metal shutters on all the downstairs windows.

PRAISE

"A hair-raising debut...both unsettling and addictive. A chilling thriller that will keep you reading long into the night." —Mary Kubica, New York Times and USA Today bestselling author of The Good Girl

"This is one readers won't be able to put down." —Booklist (starred review)

"In British author Paris's gripping debut...a ticking clock propels this claustrophobic cat-and-mouse tale toward its grisly, gratifying conclusion." —Publishers Weekly

B. A. PARIS grew up in England but has spent most of her adult life in France. She has worked both in finance and as a teacher and has five daughters. Behind Closed Doors is her first novel.

The Prada Plan 5

Ashley Antoinette

The new novel in the explosive, addictive New York Times bestselling Prada Plan series by Ashley Antoinette!

In this explosive addition to the New York Times bestselling series, Ashley Antoinette brings you pain, pleasure, love, hate, as YaYa struggles to hold it all together before life blows up in her face.

Disaya finally has it all. The man she fought for is hers at last. Her name is Mrs. Indie Perkins and their daughter is safe. Leah is gone. Life is supposed to be good. So why isn't she satisfied? Why does life suddenly seem so bitter? YaYa's Prada Plan had worked but with the riches comes pain.

She and Indie have grown apart, and with Parker now a permanent fixture in their lives, Indie is pressured to juggle it all. But YaYa's patience is running thin. Indie is loving her wrong. Her life isn't what she wants. Her Prada Plan has changed...and now, it's time to pursue a plan B in order to get what she really wants...

PRAISE

"Caution... Will leave you breathless. It's that intense." —Essence Magazine on LUXE

ASHLEY ANTOINETTE is one of the most successful female writers of her time. The feminine half of the popular married duo, Ashley and JaQuavis, she has co-written over 40 novels. Several of her titles have hit The New York Times bestsellers list, but she is most widely regarded for her racy four-book saga, The Prada Plan. Born in Flint, MI, she was bred with an innate street sense that she uses as motivation in her crime filled writings.

You Don't Have to Be a Shark

Creating Your Own Success

Robert Herjavec with John Lawrence Reynolds

From the Shark Tank star comes a business book in which he transcends the business world, helping us all learn the art of persuasion in order to get ahead in our personal and professional lives

Many people assume that effective sales ability demands a unique personality and an aggressive attitude. It's not true, and Robert Herjavec is proof. Known as the "Nice Shark" on the ABC's hit show SHARK TANK, Robert Herjavec is consistently selected the most popular "shark" by viewers, who respond to his affable nature. He has developed an honest and genuine approach to life and selling that has set him apart from his cut-throat colleagues, and rewarded him with a degree of wealth measured in hundreds of millions of dollars, and a level of fame and respect that most people can only imagine.

In You Don't Have to Be a Shark, Robert transcends pure sales technique and teaches the "non-businessperson" what they need to know in order to sell themselves successfully. We are each our own greatest asset, and in order to achieve our goals, we need to be able to communicate with others, position ourselves and even look the part. Robert's philosophy is simple: Great salespeople are made, not born, and no one achieves success in life without knowing how to sell. Entertaining, enlightening and effective, You Don't Have to Be a Shark will reveal the secrets of one of North America's most successful businessmen, who also happens to be one of today's most prominent TV personalities. All is delivered in a friendly, down-to-earth manner, and filled with anecdotes and observations to support its hard-nosed advice.

PRAISE

"Robert Herjavec's journey proves that with hard work, perseverance and the ability to sell yourself, anyone can create their own success." —Daymond John, entrepreneur and star of Shark Tank

"You Don't Have to Be a Shark is packed with stellar advice from page one onwards! It's a must-read for both budding and savvy entrepreneurs alike." —Barbara Corcoran, entrepreneur and star of Shark Tank

ROBERT HERJAVEC is the author of Driven and The Will to Win, both international bestsellers. In addition to his regular spot on Shark Tank, Robert Herjavec is a popular guest on local and network TV. JOHN LAWRENCE REYNOLDS is the award-winning author of more than two dozen fiction and non-fiction works bearing the names of corporate CEOs, politicians, and celebrities. His awards include a National Business Book Award and two Arthur Ellis Awards for Best Mystery Novel.

I'm Fascinated by Sacrifice Flies

Inside the Game We All Love

Tim Kurkjian, Foreword by George F. Will

The New York Times bestselling book of hilarious and insightful tales from the world of professional baseball by ESPN baseball analyst Tim Kurkjian.

ESPN baseball commentator Tim Kurkjian is fascinated by sacrifice flies. In fact, he is fascinated by so many aspects of baseball that he's written a book to show baseball fans where this fascination comes from and how they, too, can find it. In the aftermath of the Steroid Era that stained the game, at a time when so many players are so rich and therefore have a sense of entitlement that they haven't earned, Kurkjian shows readers how to love the game more than ever, with incredible insight and stories that are hilarious, heartbreaking, and revealing.

From what Pete Rose was doing in the batting cage a few minutes after getting out of prison, to why everyone strikes out these days and why no one seems to care, I'm Fascinated by Sacrifice Flies will surprise even longtime baseball fans. Tim explains the fear factor in the game and what it feels like to get hit by a pitch; Adam LaRoche wanted to throw up in the batter's box. He examines the game's superstitions, from Eliot Johnson's choice of bubble gum, to a poker chip in Sean Burnett's back pocket. He unearths the unwritten rules of the game, takes readers inside ESPN, and reveals how Tony Gwynn made baseball so much more fun to watch.

And, of course, Tim will explain to readers why he is fascinated by sacrifice flies.

PRAISE

"Don't read this book on a night flight—your laughter will keep the whole plane awake. A delightful, insightful font of baseball lore, wisdom and, above all, dazzling humor. Tim Kurkjian's life is baseball—and after reading this wonderful book, you'll wish it was yours." —Dr. Charles Krauthammer

"Tim Kurkjian's enthusiasm for all things baseball is infectious . . . Kurkjian has come to know every nook and cranny of the game, and comes armed with a full arsenal of hilarious anecdotes. When not sharing rib-tickling stories, he delves into a variety of insider topics." —The Christian Science Monitor

TIM KURKJIAN has been a baseball writer, reporter, analyst and host at ESPN for over 18 years. A senior writer at ESPN The Magazine and ESPN.com, he has been a regular on Baseball Tonight and Sportscenter for all 18 years.

Coloring Shakespeare

Over 30 Stunning Illustrations from Shakespeare's Most Famous Sonnets and Speeches

Judy Stevens; Foreword by Simon Callow

A coloring book featuring illustrations inspired and accompanied by William Shakespeare's most celebrated poems and quotations.

The works of Shakespeare remain unsurpassed in their ability to capture the subtleties of human emotion and the intricacies of love. In this new coloring book by talented illustrator Judy Stevens, Shakespeare's most beautiful poems and prose are illustrated and ready to be brought to life with your gel pens or colored pencils. Containing 28 well-known excerpts from Romeo and Juliet, Hamlet, Twelfth Night, A Midsummer Night's Dream, The Merchant of Venice, and As You Like It as well as Sonnets 18 ("Shall I Compare Thee to a Summer's Day?") and 23 ("As an unperfect actor on the stage"), among others, this is a delightful collection of Shakespeare's words of love, humor, consolation, and jubilation illustrated especially for creative and romantic souls.

JUDY STEVENS has worked as an illustrator for many years on children's books, cookbooks, and advertising, and is a regular contributor to The Guardian, Observer, and other magazines. She lives in Brighton, UK.

SIMON CALLOW is a veteran stage and screen actor who has appeared in such critically acclaimed films as Amadeus, Four Weddings and a Funeral, and Shakespeare in Love. Most recently he stars in the Starz hit TV show Outlander.

Mockingbird

A Portrait of Harper Lee

Charles J. Shields

An extensively revised and updated edition of the bestselling biography of Harper Lee, reframed from the perspective of the recent publication of Lee's Go Set a Watchman

To Kill a Mockingbird—the twentieth century's most widely read American novel—has sold thirty million copies and still sells a million yearly. In this in-depth biography, first published in 2006, Charles J. Shields brings to life the woman who gave us two of American literature's most unforgettable characters, Atticus Finch and his daughter, Scout.

Now, ten years after its initial publication—with revisions throughout the book and a new epilogue—Shields finishes the story of Harper Lee's life, up to its end. There's her former agent getting her to transfer the copyright for To Kill a Mockingbird to him, the death of Lee's dear sister Alice, a fuller portrait of Lee's editor, Tay Hohoff, and—most vitally—the release of Lee's long-buried first novel and the ensuing public devouring of what has truly become the book of the year, if not the decade: Lee's Go Set a Watchman.

PRAISE

“An impressively unauthorized biography of the famously reclusive author.”

In the Country We Love

My Family Divided

Diane Guerrero with Michelle Burford

The star of Orange is the New Black and Jane the Virgin presents her personal story of the real plight of undocumented immigrants in this country.

Diane Guerrero, the television actress from the megahits Orange is the New Black and Jane the Virgin, was just fourteen years old on the day her parents and brother were arrested and deported while she was at school. Born in the U.S., Guerrero was able to remain in the country and continue her education, depending on the kindness of family friends who took her in and helped her build a life and a successful acting career for herself, without the support system of her family.

In the Country We Love is a moving, heartbreaking story of one woman's extraordinary resilience in the face of the nightmarish struggles of undocumented residents in this country. There are over 11 million undocumented immigrants living in the US, many of whom have citizen children, whose lives here are just as precarious, and whose stories haven't been told. Written with Michelle Burford, this memoir is a tale of personal triumph that also casts a much-needed light on the fears that haunt the daily existence of families like the author's and on a system that fails them over and over.

DIANE GUERRERO is an actress on the hit shows Orange is the New Black and Jane the Virgin. She also volunteers with the nonprofit Immigrant Legal Resource Center and was named an Ambassador for Citizenship and Naturalization by the White House. She lives in New York City.

MICHELLE BURFORD is a founding editor of O, The Oprah Magazine and writer of many best-selling books including memoirs by Olympic gymnast Gabby Douglas, singer Toni Braxton, and Michelle Knight.

Raising Men

From Fathers to Sons: Life Lessons from Navy SEAL Training

Eric Davis with Dina Santorelli

Now in paperback, powerful advice and stories from Navy SEALs about fatherhood and raising boys to be men.

After Eric Davis spent over 16 years in the military, including a decade in the SEAL Teams, his family was more than used to his absence on deployments and secret missions that could obscure his whereabouts for months at a time.

Without a father figure in his own life since the age of fifteen, Eric was desperate to maintain the bonds he'd fought so hard to forge when his children were young—particularly with his son, Jason, because he knew how difficult it was to face the challenge of becoming a man on one's own. Unfortunately, Eric learned the hard way that Quality Time doesn't always show up in Quantity Time.

Facebook, television, phones, video games, school, jobs, friends—they all got in the way of a real, meaningful father-son relationship. It was time to take action.

As a SEAL, Eric learned to innovate and push boundaries, allowing him to function at levels beyond what was expected, comfortable, ordinary, and even imaginable, and he knew that as a father he needed to do the same with his son. Meeting extreme with extreme was the only answer.

Using a unique blend of discipline, leadership, adventure, and grace, Eric and his SEAL brothers will teach you how to connect, and reconnect, with your sons and learn how to raise real men—the Navy SEAL way.

ERIC DAVIS is a former U.S. Navy SEAL and decorated veteran of the War on Terror. Eric has been recognized as one of the premier sniper instructors in the U.S. military and has served as a Master Training Specialist at the SEAL sniper school. He is the founder and CEO of averagefrog.com, which uses SEAL performance principles to help people live a good life. He is also a featured writer on sofrep.com, navyseals.com, and others. Eric lives in Orange County, CA with his wife and four children.

Ruthless

Scientology, My Son David Miscavige, and Me

Ron Miscavige with Dan Koon

The revealing story of David Miscavige's childhood and path to the head seat of the Church of Scientology told through the eyes of his father, Ron Miscavige.

David Miscavige, the Church of Scientology's current leader and successor to founder L. Ron Hubbard, hasn't always ruled with an iron fist. It was his father, Ron Miscavige, who introduced his family to Scientology. David embraced it immediately. Years later, Ron could only watch with dismay as his bright, carefree son transformed into the leader he is today. Ruthless explores the Miscavige family's immersion into the church while the seeds are planted for son David's meteoric ascendancy. Ron traces the arc of David's life, from the early years to David's stellar rise to power in Scientology, his brutal approach at running the organization, and the disastrous effects his leadership has had on countless numbers of Scientologists and their families.

The only book to examine the origins of Scientology's current leader, Ruthless tries to make sense of David Miscavige's embrace of "disconnection"—shunning family members who leave or criticize the Church—and what his leadership means for Scientology's future and its members. Under David Miscavige's leadership, a relatively benign, if flawed and controversial, philosophical movement has transformed into what his father ultimately considers an emotionally damaging organization that has ripped families apart, including his own. Ron's personal, heartfelt story is a riveting insider's look at life within the controversial and confounding world of Scientology.

PRAISE

"Excoriating memoir." —Publisher's Weekly

"A sad and painful but bravely told story." —Kirkus Reviews

RON MISCAVIGE is the father of David Miscavige, the leader of the Church of Scientology. He and his family joined Scientology in 1970, and he worked for The Sea Organization for almost 27 of those years before leaving the Church entirely in 2012. He is a Marine veteran and professional musician.

The Only Rule Is It Has to Work

Our Wild Experiment Building a New Kind of Baseball Team

Ben Lindbergh and Sam Miller

What would happen if two statistics-minded outsiders were allowed to run a professional baseball team?

It's the ultimate in fantasy baseball: You get to pick the roster, set the lineup, and decide on strategies—with real players, in a real ballpark, playing in real time. That's what Ben Lindbergh and Sam Miller got to do when the Sonoma Stompers, an independent minor-league team in California, offered them the chance to run the team's baseball operations according to the most advanced statistics. Their story is unlike any other baseball tale you've ever read.

We tag along as Lindbergh and Miller apply their number-crunching insights to all aspects of assembling and running a team, following one cardinal rule: It has to work. We meet colorful figures like general manager Theo Fightmaster and boundary-breakers like the first openly gay player in American professional baseball. Even José Canseco makes a cameo appearance.

Will their knowledge of numbers bring the Stompers a championship? Will the team have a competitive advantage, or is the old folk wisdom really true after all? Will the players attract the attention of big-league scouts or will this be a fast track to oblivion?

It's a wild ride, as the authors' infectious enthusiasm and feel for the absurd make the Stompers' story one that will speak to numbers geeks and traditionalists alike. And in a new afterword, Lindbergh and Miller pick up the story in a new season to show how the team and its players continue to break new ground, on and off the field.

Widowmaker

A Novel

Paul Doiron

In this riveting new novel from Edgar finalist Paul Doiron, Game Warden Mike Bowditch is on the trail of a ruthless vigilante amid the snow-covered mountains of Maine.

When a mysterious woman in distress appears outside his home, Mike Bowditch has no clue she is about to blow his world apart. Amber Langstrom is beautiful, damaged, and hiding a secret with a link to his past. She claims her son Adam is a wrongfully convicted sex offender who has vanished from a brutal work camp in the high timber around the Widowmaker Ski Resort. She also claims that Adam Langstrom is the illegitimate son of Jack Bowditch, Mike's dead and diabolical father. He is the half-brother Mike never knew he had.

After trying so hard to put his troubled past behind him, Mike is reluctant to revisit the wild country of his childhood and again confront his father's history of violence. But Amber's desperation and his own need to know the truth make it hard for him to refuse her pleas for help.

In search of answers, Bowditch travels through a mountainous wilderness to a place hidden from the rest of the world, where the military guards a top-secret interrogation base, sexual predators live together in a backwoods colony, and self-styled vigilantes are willing to murder anyone they consider their enemies.

Mike Bowditch must exorcise the demons of the past before the real-life demons of the present kill him first.

PRAISE

"Doiron continues to deliver vivid descriptions of rural Maine, a satisfying mystery (this one with tantalizing loose ends), and a conflicted main character."
 —Library Journal

"Doiron [makes] the Maine woods live and breathe... Multidimensional characters and a high level of suspense help make this a winner." —Publishers Weekly

After the Fall

A Novel

Julie Cohen

When secrets tear you apart, can your family still save you?

When an unfortunate accident forces Honor back into the lives of her widowed daughter-in-law, Jo, and her only granddaughter, Lydia, she cannot wait to be well enough to get back to her own home. However, the longer she stays with Jo and Lydia, the more they start to feel like a real family. But each of the three women is keeping secrets from the others that threaten to destroy the lives they've come to know.

Honor's secret threatens to rob her of the independence she's guarded ferociously for eighty years.

Jo's secret could destroy the "normal" family life she's fought so hard to build and maintain.

Lydia's secret could bring her love—or the loss of everything that matters most to her.

One summer's day, grandmother, mother and daughter's secrets will be forced out in the open in a single dramatic moment that leaves them all asking: is there such a thing as second chances?

From the author who brought you Dear Thing comes this poignant, beautifully heartbreaking novel about what it means to be family, the ties that bind us, and the secrets that threaten to tear us apart.

PRAISE

"After the Fall explores a truth that we're inclined to ignore—that loving on any and every level takes massive amounts of courage. And that sometimes we need that courage to even love ourselves. And that while taking that unsure first step may be frightening, 'falling' is ultimately and always worth the pain." —Jennifer Scott, bestselling author of The Accidental Book Club

"A gripping work of women's fiction with a satisfying emotional punch."
—Kirkus Reviews on *Dear Thing

JULIE COHEN grew up in Maine, USA, and studied English at Brown University, Rhode Island and Cambridge University in England. She moved to the UK permanently to research fairies in Victorian children's literature at the University of Reading, and then taught English at secondary level. Hunger

Eve Langlais, Kate Douglas, A. C. Arthur

Three hot stories about three sexy shifters from a trio of today's hottest paranormal romance authors, headlined by bestselling author Eve Langlais!

A brand new, never before published novella!

In The Alpha's Mate, villains aren't supposed to rescue damsels, and pack alphas are known to have complete control of their wolf. But when Fabian saves a certain lady from drowning, everything he knows gets tossed away and only one thing becomes clear: she's his mate—and someone wants to kill her. Hell no. Protecting her, though, is only part of his problem. He also has to convince her she belongs to him. In her words, "Hell no." When she flees, little does she realize this wolf loves to chase. And when he catches the woman he wants? She'll become the Alpha's Mate.

Previously published in the 2-in-1 e-original Claimed by the Mate Volume 3 and in print for the first time!

In Dangerous Passions, finding a mate shouldn't be all that difficult for a sexy werewolf on the prowl. Modern women want romance and seduction, and Feral Passions Resort has served that purpose for providing both for the men of the Trinity Alps pack. Only two are still unmated—alpha leader Traker Jakes and his lieutenant Evan Dark—but danger stalks the women they've chosen. Danger that threatens everyone in the pack at Feral Passions.

In Bound to the Wolf, Marena Panos is an attorney with a dark secret that follows her into the mountains and into the bed of a Phelan Sava, a lycan whose strength and shared penchant for pleasure/pain will eventually own her body and soul.

PRAISE

"This collection satisfies." —Publishers Weekly on Growl

"Three great reads about alpha mates and their women." —Fresh Fiction on Growl

"Will make you bay, bark, and howl at the moon!" —Reader to Reader on Growl

EVE LANGLAIS is a New York Times bestselling Canadian author who loves to write hot romance. She enjoys strong alpha male heroes, shifters, and a happily ever after.

KATE DOUGLAS lives in California and loves "happily ever after" endings.

A.C. ARTHUR was born and raised in Baltimore, where she currently lives with her husband and three children. Determined to bring a new edge to romance, she continues to develop intriguing plots, sensual love scenes, racy characters, and fresh dialogue.

Never a Dull Moment

1971 The Year That Rock Exploded

David Hepworth

A rollicking look at 1971—the busiest, most innovative and resonant year of the 70s, defined by the musical arrival of such stars as David Bowie, Pink Floyd, Led Zeppelin, and Joni Mitchell.

On New Year's Eve, 1970, Paul McCartney told his lawyers to issue the writ at the High Court in London, effectively ending The Beatles. You might say this was the last day of the pop era. The following day, which was a Friday, was 1971. You might say this was the first day of the rock era. And within the remaining 364 days of this monumental year, the world would hear Don McLean's "American Pie," The Rolling Stones' "Brown Sugar," The Who's "Baba O'Riley," Zeppelin's "Stairway to Heaven," Rod Stewart's "Maggie May," Marvin Gaye's "What's Going On," and more.

DAVID HEPWORTH, an ardent music fan and well regarded critic, was twenty-one in '71, the same age as many of the legendary artists who arrived on the scene. Taking us on a tour of the major moments, the events and songs of this remarkable year, he shows how musicians came together to form the perfect storm of rock and roll greatness, starting a musical era that would last longer than anyone predicted.

Never a Dull Moment is more than a love song to the music of 1971. It's also an homage to the things that inspired art and artists alike. From Soul Train to The Godfather, hot pants to table tennis, Hepworth explores both the music and its landscapes, culminating in an epic story of rock and roll's best year.

PRAISE

"Wonderful storytelling." —Forbes

"[A] glittery, boisterous month-by-month calendar of the 'annus mirabilis.'" —Elle

"Fascinating cultural history...vivid, irreverent prose and analytic insight." —Publishers Weekly

DAVID HEPWORTH is a music journalist and publishing industry analyst who has launched several successful British magazines, presented the BBC rock music program Whistle Test, and anchored the coverage of Live Aid in '85. Winner of the Editor and Writer of the Year awards from the Professional Publishers Association and the Mark Boxer Award from the British Society of Magazine Editors, he is the radio columnist for the Guardian and a media correspondent for the newspaper.

The Bonjour Effect

The Secret Codes of French Conversation Revealed

Julie Barlow and Jean-Benoit Nadeau

The authors of The Story of French unravel the mysteries of French conversation.

Most of what we know about the French comes from what the French say about themselves. Yet how are we supposed to understand a people who say non when they mean yes, who never say “I don’t know,” even when they really don’t, and who argue at the drop of a hat? Jean-Benoît Nadeau and Julie Barlow spent a decade traveling to and also living in Paris. In The Bonjour Effect, they chronicle the lessons they learned after returning to France to live, for a year, with their twin daughters.

In a book as fizzy as a bottle of French champagne, they reveal the most important lesson of all: the French don’t communicate, they converse. To understand and speak French well, one must understand that French conversation runs on a set of rules that go to the heart of French culture. Why do the French like talking about “the decline of France”? Why does broaching a subject like money end discussions? Through encounters with school principals, city hall civil servants, gas company employees, old friends and business acquaintances, Julie and Jean-Benoît explain why, culturally and historically, conversation with the French is not about communicating or being nice. It’s about being interesting. After reading The Bonjour Effect, even readers with a modicum of French language ability will be able to hold their own the next time they step into a crowded bus, a beloved boulangerie, or a bistro on the Left Bank.

PRAISE

“The authors clearly had a ball researching the book, and their glee is infectious. The writing is as light as it is substantive, and if that sounds like a contradiction, I would refer you to a soufflé.”—The New York Times Book Review

“Whether you’re an expat in France, or simply dream of living there one day, The Bonjour Effect is a helpful resource to cracking the arcane cultural code. Engaging and often funny, filled with examples drawn from the authors’ experiences, this is a guide to the most essential of French arts: conversation.” —Ann Mah, author of Mastering the Art of French Eating

JEAN-BENOIT NADEAU and JULIE BARLOW are the award-winning authors of The Story of French, The Story of Spanish, and the bestselling Sixty Million Frenchmen Can’t be Wrong. They live in Canada.

The Streets of Paris

A Guide to the City of Light Following in the Footsteps of Famous Parisians Throughout History

Susan Cahill; Photographs by Marion Ranoux

From the author of Hidden Gardens of Paris comes a wonderfully unique guide to present-day Paris following in the footsteps of famous Parisians through the last 800 years.

For hundreds of years, the City of Light has set the stage for larger-than-life characters—from medieval lovers Héloïse and Abelard to the defiant King Henri IV to the brilliant scientist Madame Curie, beloved chanteuse Edith Piaf, and the writer Colette. In this beautifully illustrated book, Susan Cahill recounts the lives of twenty-two famous Parisians and then takes you through the seductive streets of Paris to the quartiers where they lived and worked: their homes, the scenes of their greatest triumphs and tragedies, their favorite cafes, bars, and restaurants, and the off-the-beaten-track places where they found inspiration and love.

From Sainte-Chapelle on the Ile de la Cite to the cemetery Pere Lachaise to Montmartre and the Marais, Cahill not only brings to life the bold characters of a tumultuous history and the arts of painting, music, sculpture, film, and literature, she takes you on a relaxed walking tour in the footsteps of these celebrated Parisians.

Each chapter opens with a beautiful four-color illustration by photographer Marion Ranoux, and every tour begins with a Metro stop and ends with a list of "Nearbys"—points of interest along the way, including cafes, gardens, squares, museums, bookstores, churches, and, of course, patisseries.

PRAISE

“No matter how many times you have been to Paris, never go again without Susan Cahill.” —Bill Moyers, bestselling author of Listening to America on Hidden Gardens of Paris

“Paris may be universally known as the City of Light, but based on this exquisite book it could just as easily be called the City of Parks.” —Chicago Tribune on Hidden Gardens of Paris

SUSAN CAHILL has published five travel books on France, Italy, and Ireland, including Hidden Gardens of Paris. She is the editor of the bestselling Women and Fiction series and author of the novel Earth Angels. She spends a few months in Paris every year.

MARION RANOUX, a native Parisienne, is an experienced freelance photographer and translator into French of Czech literature.

Julie Taboulie's Lebanese Kitchen

Authentic Recipes for Fresh and Flavorful Mediterranean Home Cooking

Julie Ann Sageer with Leah Bhabha

Contemporary Lebanese recipes from the host of PBS shows Cooking with Julie Taboulie and the upcoming Julie Taboulie's Lebanese Kitchen.

Since she was six years old, Julie Ann Sageer (nicknamed Julie Taboulie by her close-knit family) has had a passion for cooking the meals of her Lebanese heritage. Just like in her Emmy-nominated cooking show Cooking with Julie Taboulie, each of her recipes comes with hands-on instructions, tips, and tricks for making homemade Middle Eastern dishes using heaps of fresh, seasonal ingredients. Here you'll find dishes that range from classics like falafel, shawarma, and (of course) taboulie, to warming Bazilla—a stew of tomato, green pea, and lamb—to honey and rosewater-infused desserts.

In these 125 recipes, you'll learn how easy it is to make such Lebanese staples as fresh labneh (strained yogurt) and how to put together your own delicious, multi-purpose spice mixes. In addition to the delicious meat and chicken dishes, Lebanese cuisine offers a wide variety of vegetarian, pescatarian, vegan, and gluten-free dishes, usually with no substitutions whatsoever! Every chapter includes a multitude of dishes for eaters of all kinds and preferences, from meat-lovers to veggie-heads and everything in between.

PRAISE

"Julie Taboulie's passion for Lebanon and its rich cuisine is quite evident in her new beautifully illustrated cookbook. Her enthusiasm, cheerful personality and persistence for intricate details reaches the readers on every page—you can almost smell the food." —Barbara Abdeni Massaad, author of Man'oushe, Mouneh, Mezze and Soup for Syria

JULIE ANN SAGEER is the host of the Emmy-nominated Cooking with Julie Taboulie and the upcoming Julie Taboulie's Lebanese Kitchen, airing on PBS stations nationwide. Born in Central New York and raised in the Finger Lakes, her warm, welcoming way in the kitchen lends a vibrant quality to the flavorful food she shares.

LEAH BHABHA graduated from Cornell and moved to San Francisco where she worked at Boulettes Larder. Following a year at Food & Wine, she began her own website, One Hungry Pickle.

Mr. Smith Goes to Prison

What My Year Behind Bars Taught Me About America's Prison Crisis

Jeff Smith

Inside meets Orange is the New Black, this is a politician's memoir of his year in federal prison and a prescription for a more productive, cost-effective corrections system.

The fall from politico to prisoner isn't necessarily long, but the landing, as Missouri State Senator Jeff Smith learned, is a hard one.

In 2009, Smith pleaded guilty to a seemingly minor charge of campaign malfeasance and earned himself a year and one day in Kentucky's FCI Manchester. Mr. Smith Goes to Prison is the fish-out-of-water story of his time in the big house; of the people he met there and the things he learned: how to escape the attentions of fellow inmate Cornbread and his friends in the Aryan Brotherhood; what constitutes a prison car and who's allowed to ride in yours; how to bend and break the rules, whether you're a prisoner or an officer. And throughout his sentence, the young Senator tracked the greatest crime of all: the deliberate waste of untapped human potential.

Smith saw the power of millions of inmates harnessed as a source of renewable energy for America's prison-industrial complex, a system that aims to build better criminals instead of better citizens. In Mr. Smith Goes to Prison, he traces the cracks in America's prison walls, exposing the shortcomings of a racially-based cycle of poverty and crime that sets inmates up to fail. Speaking from inside experience, he offers practical solutions to jailbreak the nation from the financially crushing grip of its own prisons and to jumpstart the rehabilitation of the millions living behind bars.

PRAISE

"Partly funny, partly urgent and wholly unnerving—a mashup of 'House of Cards' and 'Orange Is the New Black'"—The New York Post

"For me the most moving part of the book is its picture of what prison does to families. Smith points to research showing that "half of all incarcerated fathers lived with their children, a quarter served as primary caregivers, and over half provided primary financial support." When a man goes to jail, his family shatters." —New York Review of Books

JEFF SMITH is a former Missouri State Senator who represented the city of St. Louis from 2007 until 2009, when he pleaded guilty to obstruction of justice in a previous campaign. Sentenced to a year and a day in FCI Manchester, he recorded his experiences behind bars—they form the basis of this book. Smith is currently an assistant professor at the New School's Milano School of International Affairs, Management, and Urban Planning. He lives in New Jersey.

By Honor Bound

Two Navy SEALs, the Medal of Honor, and a Story of Extraordinary Courage

Tom Norris and Mike Thornton, with Dick Couch

The powerful and moving story of two Medal of Honor winners written by New York Times bestselling author Dick Couch, with a foreword by Senator Bob Kerrey.

In April of 1972, SEAL Lieutenant Tom Norris risked his life in an unprecedented ground rescue of two American airmen who were shot down behind enemy lines in North Vietnam, a feat for which he would be awarded the Medal of Honor—an award that represents the pinnacle of heroism and courage.

Just six months later, Norris was sent on a dangerous special reconnaissance mission that would take his team deep into enemy territory. On that mission, they engaged a vastly superior force. In the running gun battle that ensued, Lieutenant Norris was severely wounded; a bullet entered his left eye and exited the left side of his head. SEAL Petty Officer Mike Thornton, under heavy fire, fought his way back onto a North Vietnamese beach to rescue his officer. This was the first time Tom and Mike had been on a combat mission together. Mike's act of courage and loyalty marks the only time in modern history that the Medal of Honor has been awarded in a combat action where one recipient received the Medal for saving the life of another.

By Honor Bound is the story of Tom Norris and Mike Thornton, two living American heroes who grew up very differently, entered military service and the Navy SEAL teams for vastly different reasons, and were thrown together for a single combat mission—a mission that would define their lives from that day forward.

PRAISE

“Couch eschews purple prose and flag-waving, delivering an engrossing nuts-and-bolts description of the preparations and actions...Even serious military buffs who dismiss this type of popular work as unsophisticated will admit that these are two good stories.” —Publishers Weekly

TOM NORRIS received the Medal of Honor for his behind-enemy-lines rescue of two downed airmen in Vietnam in April 1972.

MIKE THORNTON, a native of South Carolina, was awarded the medal for saving the life of his SEAL officer, Lieutenant Tom Norris.

DICK COUCH is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy who has served as a Navy SEAL and as a CIA case officer. By Honor Bound is his 21st published work.

Heaven's Ditch

God, Gold, and Murder on the Erie Canal

Jack Kelly

In the tradition of Devil in the White City, a riveting look at the construction of the Erie Canal and the visionaries along its banks who changed the course of American History.

The technological marvel of its age, the Erie Canal grew out of a sudden fit of inspiration. Proponents didn't just dream; they built a 360-mile waterway entirely by hand and largely through wilderness. As excitement crackled down its length, the canal became the scene of the most striking outburst of imagination in American history. Zealots invented new religions and new modes of living. The Erie Canal made New York the financial capital of America and brought the modern world crashing into the frontier. Men and women saw God face to face, gained and lost fortunes, and reveled in a period of intense spiritual creativity.

Heaven's Ditch illuminates the spiritual and political upheavals along this "psychic highway" from its opening in 1825 through 1844. "Wage slave" Sam Patch became America's first celebrity daredevil. William Miller envisioned the apocalypse. Farm boy Joseph Smith gave birth to Mormonism, a new and distinctly American religion. Along the way, the reader encounters America's very first "crime of the century," a treasure hunt, searing acts of violence, a visionary cross-dresser, and a panoply of fanatics, mystics, and hoaxers. A page-turning narrative, Heaven's Ditch offers an excitingly fresh look at a heady, foundational moment in American history.

PRAISE

"Engagingly juxtaposes the challenges confronting the dreamers who envisioned a link between the Atlantic, the Great Lakes and the apocalyptic caldron brewing upstate." —The New York Times

"Kelly's entertaining romp is fascinating, shocking, and filled with surprises." —Lauren Belfer, New York Times bestselling author of City of Light

"Stranger than fiction but just as entertaining." —Kevin Baker, author of The Big Crowd

JACK KELLY is a journalist, novelist, and historian. One of his books, Band of Giants, received the DAR's History Award Medal. He has contributed to national periodicals including The Wall Street Journal and is a New York Foundation for the Arts fellow. He has appeared on The History Channel and interviewed on National Public Radio. He grew up in a town in the canal corridor adjacent to Palmyra, Joseph Smith's home. He lives in New York's Hudson Valley, and his website is www.HeavensDitch.com.

Blackballed

The Black and White Politics of Race on America's Campuses

Lawrence Ross

An explosive and controversial book that rips the lid off the racism often seen on the campuses of American colleges and universities.

From Lawrence Ross, author of The Divine Nine and the leading expert on sororities and fraternities, Blackballed exposes the white fraternity and sorority system, with traditions of racist parties, songs, and assaults on black students, and the universities themselves, who name campus buildings after racist men and women. It also takes a deep dive into anti-affirmative action policies and how they effectively segregate predominately white universities, providing ample room for white privilege. A bold mix of history and the current climate, Blackballed is a call to action for universities to make radical changes to their policies and standards to foster a better legacy for all students.

PRAISE

“Ross reminds us that highly visible examples of campus racism in the 21st century are not difficult to come by.” —HuffPost College

“Ross...calls for efforts to make campuses more welcoming to black students, increases in the numbers of black students and faculty members, reform of the Greek system, and far more diversity training for all members of the campus community.” —The Washington Post

“Insightful... Ross should be read along with Michelle Alexander, Ta-Nehisi Coates, and Claudia Rankine.” —Booklist

LAWRENCE C. ROSS, JR. is a bestselling author, lecturer, writer, filmmaker, social media and consumer trends expert. His groundbreaking book, The Divine Nine: The History of African American Fraternities and Sororities, has become the preeminent book on African American fraternities and sororities. He's written regular pieces for CNN.com, The Grio, The Root, Ebony.com, and USA Today. He lives in Westchester, CA.

The Graveyard of the Hesperides

A Flavia Albia Novel

Lindsey Davis

Falco's daughter is torn between investigating human remains found buried in the backyard of a local tavern and hiding from her relatives, who are terrorizing her with wedding plans.

In first century Rome, Flavia Albia, the adopted daughter of Marcus Didius Falco, has taken up her father's former profession of informer. On a typical day, it's small cases—cheating spouses, employees dipping into the till—but this isn't a typical day. Her beloved, the plebeian Manlius Faustus, has recently moved in and decided that they should get married in a big, showy ceremony as part of starting a proper domestic life together. Slightly more shocking, his contracting firm, busy while renovating a rundown dive bar called "The Garden of the Hesperides," uncovers human remains buried in the backyard. A bit of asking around reveals that there have been rumors for years that the previous owner of the bar, now deceased, killed a bar maid. These are presumably her remains. Given the choice between planning a wedding and looking into a long-ago crime, Albia would much chase after murderers than caterers. But one murder becomes multiple murders, as more and more remains are uncovered, revealing that something truly horrible has been going on at the Hesperides.

As her investigations bring her closer to the truth behind the bodies in the backyard, Albia finds herself in the cross-hairs and in danger of her life. Which has its upsides—after all, it might be the only way she'll get out of the wedding and away from all the relatives who are desperate to "help."

PRAISE

"Whether you call this a new series or an extension of the Falco series, it's a fine book, either way." —Booklist on Deadly Election

"Davis's sequel to 2013's The Ides of April boasts a strong female lead, [and]... vividly portrays the setting, 'a poisoned city, where a paranoid emperor had caused often-lethal mistrust.'" —Publishers Weekly on Enemies at Home

"Davis blends wit and meticulous research with a cracking plot. Flavia is caustic and cynical, making this a wonderful antidote to general-election ennui." —The London Times on Deadly Election

LINDSEY DAVIS is the author of the New York Times bestselling series of historical mysteries featuring Marcus Didius Falco, which started with The Silver Pigs, and the mysteries featuring Falco's daughter, Flavia Albia, which started with The Ides of April. She has also authored a few acclaimed historical novels, including The Course of Honour. She lives in Birmingham, UK.

Wake Up America

The Nine Virtues That Made Our Nation Great--and Why We Need Them More Than Ever

Eric Bolling

The New York Times, USA Today, Wall Street Journal, and Publishers Weekly bestseller!

America was built on nine distinct virtues which shaped the character of our nation and made it great. Grit, manliness, individualism, merit, profit, and providence, dominion over our environment, thrift, and above all pride in our country—these qualities define us, and are the reason that hundreds of millions of people worldwide look to America for hope, inspiration, and opportunity.

But it's precisely these virtues that now are under attack by the radical Left of Barack Obama, Hillary Clinton, Bernie Sanders, and their followers. America as we know it is eroding before our eyes and becoming what Fox News Channel personality and co-host of "The Five" Eric Bolling calls a "politically correct nanny state." The rewards for individual achievement and hard work, our basic constitutional rights, religious faith, national identity, and capitalism itself, are being replaced by a dangerous socialistic ideology that is the polar opposite of what our Founding Fathers intended America to be.

It's time for us to wake up and heed the clear-cut warning signs that America is heading in the wrong direction—before we're too far gone. A multi-week national bestseller and a celebration of America that is informed by Eric Bolling's personal story, Wake Up America is a much-needed call for America's citizens to preserve and protect our country's present and future.

PRaise

"There are many guide-to-success books and many roads to a better life in America itself. What separates Eric Bolling's Wake Up America is that no heavy lifting is required. His commonsense suggestions are interesting to read and apply to all. This book will help you out." —Bill O'Reilly

"Eric Bolling articulates a clear vision for the nation in Wake Up America. Our nation has gone adrift in the last seven years, and this book is the road map to get us back on track. An incredible work which should be required reading for our leaders. A must-read for every patriot who wants to retake our nation!" —Sean Hannity

Chicago native ERIC BOLLING is a Fox News Channel personality and co-host of the highly rated show "The Five." He frequently appears on other Fox programs, including as substitute host for Bill O'Reilly on The O'Reilly Factor. Married with one son, he lives in Demarest, New Jersey.

The Storyteller's Secret

From TED Speakers to Business Legends, Why Some Ideas Catch On and Others Don't

Carmine Gallo

Internationally bestselling author Carmine Gallo reveals the secrets to telling powerful, inspiring, and game-changing stories that will help you achieve any goal.

How did an American immigrant without a college education go from Venice Beach T-Shirt vendor to television's most successful producer? How did a timid pastor's son surmount a paralyzing fear of public speaking to sell out Yankee stadium, twice? How did the city of Tokyo create a PowerPoint stunning enough to win itself the chance to host the Olympics?

They told brilliant stories.

In his hugely attended Talk Like TED events, bestselling author and communications guru Carmine Gallo found, again and again, that audiences wanted to discover the keys to telling powerful stories, inspiring stories that could galvanize movements and actuate global change. And indeed, whether your goal is to sell, educate, fundraise, or entertain, your story is your most valuable asset. A well-told story hits you like a punch to the gut; it triggers the light bulb moment, the 'aha' that illuminates the path to innovation. Your story is "a strategic tool with irresistible power," according to the NYT. Radical transformation can occur in an instant, with a single sentence; The Storyteller's Secret lets you craft your most powerful delivery ever.

In The Storyteller's Secret, Gallo offers lessons from a range of visionary leaders, each of whom cites storytelling as a crucial ingredient in success. A good story can spark action and passion; it can revolutionize the way people think and spur them to chase their dreams. Isn't it time you shared yours?

PRAISE

"I had decided I would do a talk about storytelling, and then I found somebody who could do it much better than me." —Vinod Khosla, Venture Capitalist

"Carmine's work has made a big impact on my presentations." —Darren Hardy, Publisher, Success magazine

CARMINE GALLO is the two-time Wall Street Journal bestselling author of Talk Like TED. He is a communications coach for widely admired brands such as Pfizer, LinkedIn, Intel, and Coca Cola, and a keynote speaker known for teaching the world's most respected business leaders how to deliver dynamic presentations and share inspiring stories. He is a columnist for Forbes.com and Entrepreneur.com. He is the head of GALLO Communications in California, where he resides with his wife.

One Less Problem Without You

A Novel

Beth Harbison

A hilarious and heartwarming novel from bestselling author Beth Harbison.

Meet Prinny, Chelsea and Diana. Prinny is the owner of Cosmos, a shop that sells crystals, potions, candles, and hope. But Prinny is in love with her married lawyer and she'll need nothing short of magic to forget about him.

Chelsea works as a living statue at tourist sites around Washington, DC. It's a thankless job, but it helps pay the rent. That, and her part-time job at Cosmos. As her dream of becoming a successful actress starts to seem more remote Chelsea begins to wonder: at one point do you give up on your dreams? And will love ever be in the cards for her?

Diana Tiesman is married to Leif, a charismatic man who isn't faithful. But no matter how many times he lets her down, Diana just can't let him go. She knows the only way she can truly breakaway is if she leaves and goes where he will never think to follow. So she ends up at Cosmos with Leif's stepsister, where she makes her homemade teas and tinctures as she figures out whether she'd rather be lonely alone than lonely in love.

Three women find themselves together at their own very different crossroads. It will take hope, love, strength and a little bit of magic for them to find their way together.

The Farthest Edge

Kristen Ashley

This smoldering hot erotic romance is the second book in The Honey series by New York Times bestselling author Kristen Ashley.

New York Times bestselling author Kristen Ashley draws readers back to the Honey Club, where every sensual boundary will be tested in search of the ultimate pleasure.

Branch doesn't exist. Living off the grid, he's looking for a way to forget his past and the guilt that plagues him. But no woman has ever been able to bring him to the edge he craves.

After a traumatic experience of her own, Evangeline stepped away from the decadent world of the Honey Club. But when she gets Branch's offer—to play without boundaries or commitments—it's too tempting for her to refuse.

As their passion ignites, Evangeline and Branch push each other to their farthest limits, fulfilling their darkest desires while falling harder and deeper than they ever imagined. The Farthest Edge is an intoxicating erotic love story that will keep readers riveted from page one and will haunt their dreams long after the cover is closed.

PRAISE

"I adore Kristen Ashley's books. Her stories grab you by the throat from page one and...continue to dwell in your mind days after you've finished the story."

—Maya Banks, New York Times bestselling author

"Kristen Ashley's books are addicting!" —Jill Shalvis, New York Times bestselling author

"Kristen Ashley captivates." —Publishers Weekly

"There is something about Ashley's books that I find crackalicious." —Kati Brown, Dear Author

Leonard

My Fifty-Year Friendship with a Remarkable Man

William Shatner with David Fisher

William Shatner's New York Times bestselling tribute to his longtime friend and Star Trek co-star, Leonard Nimoy.

Leonard Nimoy and William Shatner first crossed paths as actors on the set of The Man from U.N.C.L.E. Little did they know that their next roles, in a new science fiction television series, would shape their lives in ways no one could have anticipated. In seventy-nine television episodes and six feature films, they grew to know each other more than most friends could ever imagine.

Over the course of half a century, Shatner and Nimoy saw each other through personal and professional highs and lows. In this powerfully emotional book, Shatner tells the story of a man who was his friend for five decades, recounting anecdotes and untold stories of their lives on and off set, as well as gathering stories from others who knew Nimoy well, to present a full picture of a rich life.

As much a biography of Nimoy as a story of their friendship, Leonard is a uniquely heartfelt book written by one legendary actor in celebration of another.

PRAISE

“Trekkies will want this for the insider stories from Captain Kirk himself, but fans of candid, emotion-filled biographies will adore this account because it’s a treasure trove of information.” —Library Journal (starred review)

“Shatner offers up a lovely and moving tribute to his beloved friend.” —Booklist

“Shatner delivers a raw and honest look at the life of Leonard Nimoy through the filter of someone who loved him like a brother. Star Trek fans aren’t the only ones who should read this definitive biography of the man who was much more than Mr. Spock.” —Associated Press

WILLIAM SHATNER has worked as a musician, producer, director, and celebrity pitchman, and notably played Captain Kirk on Star Trek from 1966 to 1969 and in seven Star Trek films. He won an Emmy and a Golden Globe for his role as attorney Denny Crane on the TV drama Boston Legal. He lives in Los Angeles with his wife, Elizabeth.

DAVID FISHER is the author of more than twenty New York Times bestsellers, including William Shatner’s autobiography Up Till Now. He lives in New York.

The Idea of You

A Novel

Robinne Lee

Solène Marchand begins an impassioned affair with a member of her daughter's favorite boy band.

When Solène Marchand, the thirty-nine-year-old owner of a prestigious art gallery in Los Angeles, takes her daughter, Isabelle, to meet her favorite boy band, she does so reluctantly and at her ex-husband's request. The last thing she expects is to make a connection with one of the members of the world-famous August Moon. But Hayes Campbell is clever, winning, confident, and posh, and the attraction is immediate. That he is all of twenty years old further complicates things.

What begins as a series of clandestine trysts quickly evolves into a passionate relationship. It is a journey that spans continents as Solène and Hayes navigate each other's disparate worlds: from stadium tours to international art fairs to secluded hideaways in Paris and Miami. And for Solène, it is as much a reclaiming of self, as it is a rediscovery of happiness and love. When their romance becomes a viral sensation, and both she and her daughter become the target of rabid fans and an insatiable media, Solène must face how her new status has impacted not only her life, but the lives of those closest to her.

ROBINNE LEE is an actress, writer and producer. A graduate of Yale University and Columbia Law School, Robinne was born and raised in Westchester County, New York. Robinne has numerous acting credits in both television and film, most notably opposite Will Smith in both Hitch and Seven Pounds. She recently completed shooting Fifty Shades Darker and Fifty Shades Freed, playing Ros Bailey. Robinne currently lives in Los Angeles with her husband and two children.

The Killing Lessons

A Novel

Saul Black

In their isolated country house, a mother and her two children prepare to wait out a blinding snowstorm. Two violent predators walk through the door. Nothing will ever be the same.

When the two strangers turn up at Rowena Cooper's isolated Colorado farmhouse, she knows instantly that it's the end of everything. For the two haunted and driven men, on the other hand, it's just another stop on a long and bloody journey. And they still have many miles to go and victims to sacrifice, before their work is done.

For San Francisco homicide detective Valerie Hart, their trail of victims—women abducted, tortured and left with a seemingly random series of objects inside them—has brought her from obsession to the edge of physical and psychological destruction. And she's losing hope of making a breakthrough before that happens.

But the murders at the Cooper farmhouse didn't quite go according to plan. There was a survivor, Rowena's ten-year-old daughter Nell, who now holds the key to the killings. Injured, half-frozen, terrified, Nell has only one place to go. And that place could be even more dangerous than what she's running from.

In this extraordinary, pulse-pounding debut, Saul Black takes us deep into the mind of a psychopath and into the troubled heart of the woman determined to stop him.

PRAISE

"Shockingly good writing...It's impossible not to be swept away by its propulsive momentum." —The New York Times Book Review

"Black squeezes every last ounce of suspense out of this story. One violent climax follows another...The Killing Lessons is state of the art." —The Washington Post

"Compelling . . . graphic and disturbing. Black utilizes the psychological edge of his characters to elevate the story." —Associated Press

"This novel breaks brilliant." —Jeffery Deaver

SAUL BLACK is the author of The Killing Lessons and lives in London.

101 Things That Piss Me Off

Rachel Ballinger

Based on Rachel Ballinger's hit Youtube channel comes this hilarious compilation of 101 rants on things that piss her off, enhanced with photos and illustrations.

Most people might not get angry at someone for going the speed limit. Or for liking coleslaw or cantaloupe. Or for someone not responding to a ridiculously hilarious text message. Or reality show recaps. But lucky for you, Rachel Ballinger is not most people. She will yell at people and inanimate objects. Why? Because that person or thing Pissed. Her. Off.

101 Things That Piss Me Off is a quick-witted and comical collection based on Rachel's hit Youtube series "You Know What Pisses Me Off", featuring never-before-heard rants, along with photographs and illustrations to help demonstrate. Using light-hearted anger, Rachel aims to show that being heated, passionate and expressive about things we care for is important. And fun.

Rachel Ballinger, an LA based Youtuber, began her career with the catch-phrase, "You know what pisses me off." She caught the attention of viewers and developed a devoted fan base. Expanding to Twitter, Instagram, and Snapchat, she broadened her topics into DIY videos, educational videos, Q&As, vlogs, and more, strung together with quick-witted humor. Rachel is known for her ability to use satire to pin-point every day truths and ironies about being a young adult in the modern world.

I've Got Sand In All the Wrong Places

Lisa Scottoline and Francesca Serritella

Get ready for some wit, wisdom, and warmth from this collection by the bestselling duo.

Lisa and Francesca are back with another collection of warm and witty stories that will strike a chord with every woman. This six book series is among the best reviewed humor books published today and has been compared to the late greats, Erma Bombeck and Nora Ephron. Delia Ephron said of the fifth book in the series, Have a Nice Guilt Trip, "Lisa and Francesca, mother and daughter, bring you the laughter of their lives once again and better than ever. You will identify with these tales of guilt and fall in love with them and fierce (grand) Mother Mary." This seventh volume will not disappoint as it hits the humorous and poignant note that fans have come to expect from the beloved mother-daughter duo.

PRAISE

Praise for this series:

"True tales of how we live now from a mother and daughter who are best pals—and a very funny writing team." —People ("Best Beach Book")

"We get to be flies on the wall as the mother-daughter team fights, makes up, and hurls barbs just like you and your mom." —O, The Oprah Magazine ("Perfect Summer Must Read")

"Guaranteed laughs: Short, sharp musings on life from perennially hilarious mom-daughter duo." —Good Housekeeping

"The perfect present for moms, grandmas, and aunts." —Cosmopolitan

LISA SCOTTOLINE is a bestselling and Edgar Award-winning author and a columnist for The Philadelphia Inquirer. She has been published in thirty countries. She lives in the Philadelphia area with an array of pets.

FRANCESCA SCOTTOLINE SERRITELLA graduated cum laude from Harvard University, where she won the Thomas Temple Hoopes Prize, the Le Baron Russell Briggs Fiction Prize and the Charles Edmund Horman Prize for her creative writing. She lives in New York with one dog and one cat, so far.

The Field of Fight

How We Can Win the Global War Against Radical Islam and Its Allies

Lt. General Michael T. Flynn and Michael Ledeen

The New York Times, and USA Today, and Washington Post bestseller: A top military insider reveals why ISIS and other terrorist groups are gaining ground—and presents a new plan to defeat them.

Paris, Brussels, San Bernardino, Nice, Orlando, and more attacks by radical Islamists. We're in a global war and it's time to admit it—so we can win it.

Lt. General Michael T. Flynn spent more than thirty-three years in Army intelligence, serving in Grenada, Haiti, Central America, Iraq, Afghanistan, and other global war on terror operational areas. He worked closely with Generals Stanley McChrystal and David Petraeus, Admiral Mike Mullen, Director of National Intelligence James Clapper, and other policy, defense, intelligence, and war-fighting leaders. But shortly before he was scheduled to retire, Flynn was dismissed from his position as Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency after telling a congressional committee that the American people are in more danger than we were just a few years ago. Why? Because Flynn told an uncomfortable truth, one the Obama administration didn't want the public to hear. The fact is that ISIS, Al Qaeda, Boko Haram, and others are growing in number, power, and penetration into Western targets. Because our government has minimized the actions of terrorists and sought to separate those actions from Islam itself, we don't fully grasp the enormity of the threat they pose against us. The Field of Fight offers a plan that combines creative and strategic solutions with political engagement and effective military action: a plan not just to “manage” the problem, but to win.

PRAISE

“General Flynn’s The Field of Fight is as good an introduction to the long war we are in as any I have read. It is also a sobering and indeed frightening indictment of the intellectual dishonesty which has blocked our leaders from winning this war.” —Newt Gingrich

“[The Field of Fight] is both an engaging personal memoir by a great American soldier and military intelligence officer...” —Senator Joseph Lieberman

Lt. General MICHAEL T. FLYNN spent 33 years as an intelligence officer. Before he was terminated from government service, he served as the Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency. He has since founded the Flynn Intel Group, a government consulting firm.

MICHAEL LEDEEN is the author of War Against the Terror Masters and The Iranian Time Bomb. He spent twenty years at the American Enterprise Institute and now holds a chair at the Foundation for Defense of Democracies.

Raw Deal

How the "Uber Economy" and Runaway Capitalism Are Screwing American Workers

Steven Hill

A provocative exposé that shows how unregulated businesses like Uber and Airbnb are a dead end for American workers and the U.S. economy.

The US workforce, which has been one of the world's most productive and wealthiest, is undergoing an alarming transformation. Increasing numbers of workers find themselves on shaky ground, turned into freelancers, temps and contractors. Even many full-time and professional jobs are experiencing this precarious shift. Within a decade, a near-majority of the 145 million employed Americans will be impacted. And now a weird yet historic mash-up of Silicon Valley technology and Wall Street greed is thrusting upon us the latest economic fraud: the so-called "sharing economy" with companies like Uber, Airbnb and TaskRabbit allegedly "liberating workers" to become "independent" and "their own CEOs," hiring themselves out for ever-smaller jobs and wages while the companies profit.

But this "share the crumbs" economy is just the tip of a looming iceberg—a "freelance society," with the middle class drifting toward a troubling future.

In Raw Deal, Steven Hill proposes pragmatic policy solutions to transform the US economy and its safety net and social contract, launching a new New Deal instead of a Raw Deal.

STEVEN HILL is a Senior Fellow with the New America Foundation, and a journalist and author of four books, including the internationally praised Europe's Promise: Why the European Way is the Best Hope in an Insecure Age. His articles and interviews have appeared in the New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, The Atlantic, Le Monde, Financial Times, The Guardian, Los Angeles Times, The Nation, Politico, Mother Jones, BBC, C-SPAN, Fox News, Democracy Now, NPR, PBS and many others.

A Paris Year

My Day-to-Day Adventures in the Most Romantic City in the World

Janice MacLeod

An illustrated love letter to the City of Light.

Part memoir and part visual journey through the streets of modern-day Paris, A Paris Year chronicles, day by day, one woman's sojourn in the world's most beautiful city. Beginning on her first day in Paris, Janice MacLeod, the author of the best-selling book, Paris Letters, began a journal recording in illustrations and words, nearly every sight, smell, taste, and thought she experienced in the City of Light. The end result is more than a diary: it's a detailed and colorful love letter to one of the most romantic and historically rich cities on earth. Combining personal observations and anecdotes with stories and facts about famous figures in Parisian history, this visual tale of discovery, through the eyes of an artist, is sure to delight, inspire, and charm.

JANICE MACLEOD, the illustrator and author of the New York Times best-selling book Paris Letters, was born in Canada and worked in advertising for many years until she decided to slip away from corporate drudgery and spend time abroad. During her time in Paris, she painted letters about her travels and mailed them to friends, who encouraged her to sell the personalized illustrated letters on Etsy. Since then, MacLeod has sent out thousands of letters to fans worldwide.

Islamic Exceptionalism

How the Struggle Over Islam Is Reshaping the World

Shadi Hamid

“[An] illuminating book.” —The Washington Post

In Islamic Exceptionalism, Brookings Institution scholar and acclaimed author Shadi Hamid offers a novel and provocative argument on how Islam is, in fact, “exceptional” in how it relates to politics, with profound implications for how we understand the future of the Middle East. Divides among citizens aren’t just about power but are products of fundamental disagreements over the very nature and purpose of the modern nation state—and the vexing problem of religion’s role in public life. Hamid argues for a new understanding of how Islam and Islamism shape politics by examining different models of reckoning with the problem of religion and state, including the terrifying—and alarmingly successful—example of ISIS.

With unprecedented access to Islamist activists and leaders across the region, Hamid offers a panoramic and ambitious interpretation of the region’s descent into violence. Islamic Exceptionalism is a vital contribution to our understanding of Islam’s past and present, and its outsized role in modern politics. We don’t have to like it, but we have to understand it—because Islam, as a religion and as an idea, will continue to be a force that shapes not just the region, but the West as well in the decades to come.

PRAISE

“A smart and highly readable book by one of the leading experts on the topic.”
—David Gregory, former host of Meet the Press and author of How’s Your Faith

“A riveting account of the Arab Spring and all that followed, by one of the world’s leading scholars on political Islam. A hugely important book.” —General David Petraeus (Ret.), former director of the CIA and commander of coalition forces in Iraq and Afghanistan

SHADI HAMID is a senior fellow in the Project on U.S. Relations with the Islamic World at the Brookings Institution and a contributing writer for The Atlantic. He is also the author of Temptations of Power: Islamists and Illiberal Democracy in a New Middle East. Hamid lives in Washington, D.C.

Nevernight

Jay Kristoff

In this captivating new series from the award-winning author Jay Kristoff comes the brilliant launch of his new trilogy where an assassin must decide on the price of revenge.

In a world where the suns almost never set, a woman gains entry to a school of infamous assassins, seeking vengeance against the powers that destroyed her family. Daughter of an executed traitor, Mia Corvere is barely able to escape her father's failed rebellion with her life. Alone and friendless, she wanders a city built from the bones of a dead god, hunted by the Senate and its thugs. But her gift for speaking with the shadows leads her to the hearth of a retired killer and a future she never imagined.

Now, Mia is apprenticed to the deadliest flock of assassins in the entire Republic—the Red Church. Deadly trials await her within the Church's halls: blades and poisons, treachery, and death. If she survives to initiation, she'll be inducted among the chosen of the Lady of Blessed Murder and be one step closer to the only thing she desires: revenge.

PRAISE

"Launching the Nevernight fantasy series, Kristoff (the Lotus War trilogy) creates a splendid world of corruption and violence. Kristoff portrays a world as rife with villains and treachery as the ancient Italian civilizations it echoes. Absorbing in its complexity and bold in its bloodiness, this beginning promises (and delivers) equal shares of beauty and decay. With a delicate balance of the ancient and the magical, this tense and brutal tale is unflinching, thrilling, and satisfying."
—Publishers Weekly, starred review on Nevernight

"A sensuous, shades-of-moral-gray world; a compelling, passionate heroine; a high-stakes quest for revenge—th..."

JAY KRISTOFF is the award-winning author of The Lotus War series and Illuminae. He spent most of his formative years locked in his bedroom with piles of books, or gathered around dimly-lit tables rolling polyhedral dice. Being the holder of an Arts degree, he has no education to speak of. He is 6'7 and has approximately 13,520 days to live. He abides in Melbourne with his secret agent kung-fu assassin wife and the world's laziest Jack Russell. He does not believe in happy endings.

Toss Your Own Salad

The Meatless Cookbook with Burgers, Bolognese, and Balls

Eddie McNamara; Photography by April Rankin

Based on the popular Tumblr, a meatless cookbook from a former NYC Port Authority Officer and vegetarian chef who believes “any schmuck can put bacon on something to make it delicious.”

Takeout food every night is great...for leaving you broke, bloated, and praying for a national healthcare plan to deal with your fat ass self. Eddie McNamara wants to show you how to stop being a takeout junkie or a Gordon Ramsay wannabe who spends years learning complex knife skills you don't need. He also wants to show you how to pump up the flavor without resorting to using meat because—really—who needs to eat more meat? As Eddie puts it, “Any schmuck can put bacon on something to make it delicious.” He wants to show people how easy it was to cook delicious meatless meals for themselves rather than gorging on more fat and salt on a daily basis than you'd see in a bucket of KFC. He also wants to show people that you don't have to be Warren Buffett to eat well. As Eddie says, “Brokesters have cooked filling plant-based food since long before Mark Bittman moved to Berkeley in search of a perfectly ripe avocado.” That's how his popular Tumblr, “Toss Your Own Salad,” got started and now morphed into this awesome meatless cookbook that will get you to rock out over 100 recipes for dishes like The Green Inferno Salad, Dr. Devash's Shakshuka, Nihilistic Frittata, and Penne Tikka Masala with an Eddie-curated soundtrack that spans the musical range from Metallica's “Creeping Death” to Gene Vincent's “Be-Bop-a-Lula.” So, stop wasting your money. Do it yourself. Let Eddie McNamara show you how to Toss Your Own Salad.

EDDIE McNAMARA is a former Port Authority police officer and member of the 9/11 Rescue/Recover team who has, since leaving the force, turned a love of food into interning for Amanda Cohen at Dirt Candy, recipe testing for InStyle Magazine, HGTV, and Women's Health, and now running a popular Tumblr called Toss Your Own Salad. He lives in Brooklyn, NY.

Under the Stars

How America Fell in Love with Camping

Dan White

An irreverent history of American camping.

From the Sierras to the Adirondacks and the Everglades, Dan White travels the nation to experience firsthand—and sometimes face first—how the American wilderness transformed from the devil's playground into a source of adventure, relaxation, and renewal.

Whether he's camping nude in cougar country, being attacked by wildlife while “glamping,” or crashing a girls-only adventure for urban teens, Dan White seeks to animate the evolution of outdoor recreation. In the process, he demonstrates how the likes of Emerson, Thoreau, Roosevelt, and Muir—along with visionaries such as Adirondack Murray, Horace Kephart, and Juliette Gordon Low—helped blaze a trail from Transcendentalism to Leave No Trace.

Wide-ranging in research, enthusiasm, and geography, Under the Stars reveals a vast population of nature seekers, a country still in love with its wild places.

PRAISE

“Dan White has written the definitive book on camping in America. Under the Stars is a passionate, witty, and deeply engaging examination of why humans venture into the wild.” —Cheryl Strayed, author of Wild

“An imaginative volume on the lure and legends of camping... The result is an amusing, inviting look at the outdoors life and the men and women who have given life to camping.” —Wall Street Journal

“Chatty and entertaining...a sweet meditation on the intergenerational experience of camping.” —New York Times

DAN WHITE is the author of The Cactus Eaters: How I Lost My Mind—and Almost Found Myself—on the Pacific Crest Trail, an NCIBA bestseller and Los Angeles Times “Discovery” selection. He has taught writing at Columbia University and San Jose University. He is a contributing editor of Catamaran Literary Reader and received his MFA from Columbia University. He lives in Santa Cruz, California with his wife and daughter.

An Andy Carpenter Mystery

David Rosenfelt

The next novel in David Rosenfelt's clever, humorous mystery series featuring lawyer Andy Carpenter and his faithful dog, Tara.

New Jersey defense lawyer Andy Carpenter spends as little time as possible working as a lawyer and as much time as he can working on his true passion, the Tara Foundation, the dog rescue organization he runs with his friend Willie Miller. Lately, Andy has been especially involved in a county program where prison inmates help train rescue dogs to make them more adoptable, benefiting both the dogs and the prisoners. One of the prisoners Andy has been working with is his client Brian Atkins, who is serving a five-year term for fraud, but has just four months left until he's up for parole. Brian has been helping to train Boomer, an adorable fox terrier the Tara Foundation rescued from a neglectful owner. Brian and Boomer are clearly a terrific match. In fact, Andy hopes that Brian will adopt Boomer himself, once his sentence is up.

But one day, Andy is shocked to discover that Brian has used Boomer to make an ingenious escape, and man and dog are both in the wind. The next day, Brian's wife and the man on whose testimony Brian was convicted are both found murdered. Brian himself is caught and arrested for the crime, though he forcefully protests his innocence. Suddenly, Andy finds himself with a client in desperate need of defense and a new dog in Boomer. And as he starts to dig deeper into the murder and the events leading up to it, Andy realizes he might be putting them all in far more danger than anyone knew.

PRAISE

"Andy Carpenter continues to shine in Who Let the Dog Out?...Readers familiar with Andy Carpenter mysteries will discover that Rosenfelt has a solid formula, and the end result is like eating ice cream on a hot day—satisfying to the very end." —Associated Press

"Heartwarming...This is an entertaining, feel-good read, populated with Jersey gangsters, ruthless criminals, and likable protagonists. Longtime fans and new readers alike will be charmed." —Publishers Weekly on Hounded

"Great summer entertainment, a page-turning mystery with a lot of good laughs." —Portland Press Herald on Hounded

DAVID ROSENFELT is the Edgar-nominated and Shamus Award-winning author of five standalones and thirteen previous Andy Carpenter novels, most recently Who Let the Dog Out?. After years living in California, he and his wife moved to Maine with twenty-five golden retrievers that they've rescued. Rosenfelt's hilarious account of this cross-country move, Dogtripping, was published by St. Martin's Press.

Beginner's Guide to Tarot

Juliet Sharman-Burke; Illustrated by Giovanni Caselli

The bestselling tarot book and card set—expanded and repackaged for the new enthusiast.

The tarot is an ancient art, dating back at least to the mid-fifteenth century, and reading the tarot is a skill that can be learned and ultimately mastered. While there are many books and decks for the advanced tarot enthusiast, there is very little to guide and teach those who are new to the cards.

The Beginner's Guide to the Tarot fills that void—this is a book and card set designed specifically for the novice. In the fully illustrated 192 page book, noted tarot expert Juliet Sharman-Burke leads the reader through the cards and suits, the Minor and Major Arcana, and the major layouts for the complete 78 card deck. The book is packed with a newly designed and illustrated deck which draws upon both traditional and modern tarot iconography and is rendered in a clear, distinctive style. Also included is a printed chart for the reader to consult when laying out the cards.

JULIET SHARMAN-BURKE is a practicing analytic psychotherapist who has taught tarot and astrology for twenty years. She is the author of numerous books including The Complete Book of Tarot and, with Liz Greene, the bestselling The New Mythic Tarot card and book set. She lives in England.

GIOVANNI CASELLI is a well-known illustrator noted for his work regarding the classical world and its literature, art, symbol and myths. He lives in Italy.

The Wardrobe Mistress

A Novel of Marie Antoinette

Meghan Masterson

A beautiful debut about Giselle, one of Marie Antoinette's wardrobe women, who casually spies during the French Revolution torn between her loyalty to the queen and growing unrest in the country.

It's Giselle Aubry's first time at court in Versailles. At sixteen, she is one of Marie Antoinette's newest wardrobe ladies in awe of the glamorous queen and her opulent palace life. A budding designer, it's a dream come true to work with the beautiful fabrics and jewels. Every few weeks she returns home to visit her family in Paris where rumors of revolution are growing.

From her position in the royal household, Giselle is poised to see both sides of the tensions erupting throughout Paris. When her uncle, a retired member of the secret spy ring that worked for King Louis XV, suggests that she casually report on the Queen as a game, she leaps at the chance. Spying seems like an adventure and an exciting way to privately support the ideals taking the countryside and Léon Gauvain, the handsome watchmaker who courts her, by storm.

But as the revolution continues to gain momentum, and Giselle grows closer to the Queen, one of her few trusted servants, she finds herself dangerously torn. Violence is escalating. She must choose where her true loyalty lies, or risk losing everything...maybe even her head.

THE WARDROBE MISTRESS is Meghan Masterson's fascinating and visceral debut, not to be missed.

MEGHAN MASTERMAN graduated from the University of Calgary and has worked several unrelated jobs while writing on the side. As a child, she gave her parents a flowery story about horses every year for Christmas. She is drawn to strong historical figures and situations which present unexpected opportunities for her characters. Meghan loves reading at all hours, cooking, and going for walks with her dog. She and her husband live in Calgary. Connect with Meghan at meghanmastersonauthor.com

Daisy in Chains

A Novel

Sharon Bolton

In the next propulsive and heartrending standalone from master of suspense Sharon Bolton, a prison inmate convinces a lawyer to look deeper into his case.

He's a serial killer. A murderer of young women, all killed in brutal attacks.

But despite Hamish Wolfe's conviction, he's always stuck to his story—he's innocent and he's been wrongly imprisoned. And now he wants someone to investigate and, more importantly, to write his story.

Maggie Rose is a notorious defense attorney and writer whose specialty is getting convictions overturned. At first, Maggie is reluctant to even acknowledge Hamish's requests to meet, ignoring his letters. But this is a very charismatic and persuasive man, good-looking and intelligent.

Eventually even she can't resist his lure...

PRAISE

Praise for Little Black Lies:

"[Bolton's] crafty plotting produces an intricately detailed mystery...And her deft characterizations respect the psychological complexities of the three islanders who serve as narrators...The tension of their interplay fuels the suspense, but in the end—literally, on the last page—it's the plot that thrills." —The New York Times Books Review

"Achingly suspenseful." —The Washington Post

"This brilliantly plotted thriller, filled with lies and betrayals, builds to an unexpected, mesmerizing ending." —Publishers Weekly (starred review)

SHARON BOLTON is a Mary Higgins Clark Award winner and an ITW Thriller Award, CWA Gold Dagger and Barry Award nominee. She lives near London, England. Sharon Bolton was previously published as S.J. Bolton.

Tell Me, Pretty Maiden

Rhys Bowen

Edgar Award finalist and Agatha Award winner Rhys Bowen captures early 20th century New York as PI Molly Murphy tracks down some of Broadway's brightest stars and Fifth Avenue's richest families.

It's wintertime in New York, and for the first time since Irish immigrant Molly Murphy started her early-twentieth-century detective agency, she is completely snowed in with work. While she's proving to be quite the entrepreneur and is very much in demand by some of Broadway's brightest stars and Fifth Avenue's richest families, she has to grudgingly admit that if she's going to work more than one case at a time, then she's going to need some help. Molly's beau, the recently and wrongly suspended police captain Daniel Sullivan, would make an ideal associate, but before they can agree on the terms of his employment, they stumble upon a young woman lying unconscious in the middle of a snow-covered Central Park. When the woman wakes up, she is disorientated and has and lost her ability to speak. The authorities are about to pack her off to an insane asylum when Molly can't help but step in and take on yet another case.

Lively and colorful, full of absorbing historical detail and delightful characters, Tell Me, Pretty Maiden is another gem in Rhys Bowen's New York Times bestselling series.

PRAISE

"Once again Rhys Bowen proves why she's one of the great mystery writers working today. She never, ever falls into formula... Atmospheric, tightly plotted, heart pounding, this is Bowen at her best." —Louise Penny

"If you are one of the few on the planet yet to discover Molly Murphy, created by Rhys Bowen, now is the time to take the plunge. Molly is sassy, saucy, brave and smart." —The Huffington Post

"Filled with intriguing characters, especially Molly herself...Bowen sets the stage with background information and hisotrical detail while she keeps the story moving." —RT Book Reviews (4 stars)

RHYS BOWEN is the author of the Anthony and Agatha Award-winning Molly Murphy mysteries, the Edgar Award-nominated Evan Evans series, and the Royal Spyness series. Born in England, she lives in San Rafael, California.

All Is Not Forgotten

A Novel

Wendy Walker

The next blockbuster thriller aimed at the Girl on a Train and Luckiest Girl Alive audience—with film rights already snapped up by Reese Witherspoon.

It begins in the small, affluent town of Fairview, Connecticut, where everything seems picture perfect.

Until one night when young Jenny Kramer is attacked at a local party. In the hours immediately after, she is given a controversial drug to medically erase her memory of the violent assault. But, in the weeks and months that follow as she heals from her physical wounds, and with no factual recall of the attack, Jenny struggles with her raging emotional memory. Her father, Tom, becomes obsessed with his inability to find her attacker and seek justice while her mother, Charlotte, struggles to pretend this horrific event did not touch her carefully constructed world.

As Tom and Charlotte seek help for their daughter, the fault lines within their marriage and their close-knit community emerge from the shadows where they have been hidden for years, and the relentless quest to find the monster who invaded their town—or perhaps lives among them—drive this psychological thriller to a shocking and unexpected conclusion.

PRAISE

“Assured, powerful, polished...Built on a fascinating scientific premise and laced with moral complexity, it is, in a word, unforgettable.” —William Landay

“With an exceptionally unreliable narrator and unique plot set-up, All Is Not Forgotten is a compelling, thought-provoking mystery that will have you looking at every therapist you know in a brand new light.” —Kimberly McCreight

“Captivating and bold...Fascinating and at times shocking, All Is Not Forgotten is one book you won’t easily forget. Not to be missed!” —Mary Kubica

WENDY WALKER has worked as an attorney specializing in family law. Her novels include Four Wives, Social Lives, and All is Not Forgotten. She lives in Connecticut where she is at work on her next novel.

A Terrible Beauty

A Lady Emily Mystery

Tasha Alexander

In this thrilling new novel in the New York Times bestselling series, Lady Emily travels to Greece where a ghost from her past returns to haunt her amid the ruins.

On a quest to distract her lifelong friend Jeremy from his recent heartbreak, Lady Emily organizes a holiday in Greece. As a lover of all things Greek, she quickly finds herself occupied with tours of ancient ruins, lively debates with Margaret, a devoted Latinist, and slightly more scandalous endeavors with her dashing husband, Colin Hargreaves. But the pleasantries are brought to an abrupt halt when a man long believed dead greets the party at their island villa. Lord Philip Ashton, Colin's childhood best friend and Emily's first husband, has returned. But can Philip really be who he claims, even if he has the scars and stories to prove it? Where has he been for all this time? And will his undying love for Emily drive him to claim what's his?

Intrigue mounts as Philip reveals that he has been plagued for the past few years by an illegal antiques trader who believes he is in possession of a piece of Achilles' helmet, a priceless relic that was stolen from him moments after he unearthed it on an archaeological dig. Emily must employ all of her cunning and expertise to thwart thieves who threaten not only her own safety, but that of those precious artifacts she holds so dear. A trail of overheard conversations, murderous assailants, and dead bodies leads her on a chase to uncover more than one buried truth.

PRaise

“One of Lady Emily’s most interesting cases. The Victorian detail enhances the difficulties of proving someone dead or alive and discovering a killer with none of the usual motives for murder.” —Kirkus Reviews on The Counterfeit Heiress

“Readers will relish Alexander’s lyrical evocation of British landscapes and her gift for crafting engaging characters.” —Publishers Weekly on Behind the Shattered Glass

“Readers will fall in love with the vividly described nineteenth-century Floating City. Fun to read, fast paced, and delightfully suspenseful.” —Booklist on Death in the Floating City

TASHA ALEXANDER attended the University of Notre Dame, where she signed on as an English major in order to have a legitimate excuse for spending all her time reading. She and her husband, novelist Andrew Grant, divide their time between Chicago and the UK.

Texas Ranger

The Epic Life of Frank Hamer, the Man Who Killed Bonnie and Clyde

John Boessenecker

The New York Times bestselling and first full-length biography of Frank Hamer, whose extraordinary career as a Texas Ranger made him one of the West’s most legendary lawmen.

To most Americans, Frank Hamer is known only as the “villain” of the 1967 film Bonnie and Clyde. Now, in Texas Ranger; historian John Boessenecker sets out to restore Hamer’s good name and prove that he was, in fact, a classic American hero.

From the horseback days of the Old West through the gangster days of the 1930s, Hamer stood on the frontlines of some of the most important and exciting periods in American history. He participated in the Bandit War of 1915, survived the climactic gunfight in the last blood feud of the Old West, battled the Mexican Revolution’s spillover across the border, protected African Americans from lynch mobs and the Ku Klux Klan, and ran down gangsters, bootleggers, and Communists. When at last his career came to an end, it was only when he ran up against another legendary Texan: Lyndon B. Johnson.

Written by one of the most acclaimed historians of the Old West, Texas Ranger is the first biography to tell the full story of this near-mythic lawman.

PRAISE

“In terms of sheer action and violence, from close-quarters gunfights to Mexican-border ambushes to face-offs with lynch mobs, I’m hard-pressed to think of [a biography of an American lawman and detective] that rivals John Boessenecker’s excellent Texas Ranger...a notable achievement.” —Wall Street Journal

“Fair-minded and thorough.” —The New York Times Book Review

“A fascinating look into the epic life of one of the greatest American lawmen of the 20th century.” —San Antonio Express-News

JOHN BOESSENECKER, a San Francisco trial lawyer and former police officer, is considered one of the leading authorities on crime and law enforcement in the Old West. He is the award-winning author of eight books, including Bandido: The Life and Times of Tiburcio Vasquez. In 2011 and 2013, True West magazine named Boessenecker Best Nonfiction Writer. He has appeared frequently as a historical commentator on PBS, The History Channel, A&E, and other networks.

Love the Wine You're With

Kim Gruenenfelder

Three best friends decide to open a wine bar in Echo Park LA, where they encounter the trials and tribulations of dating, love, and life.

Jessie is finally about to realize her life-long goal of owning her very own beautiful house, which will lead to a wonderful marriage, kids, and life with her boyfriend of three years, Kevin; but as they're looking at the perfect place, Kevin suddenly gets cold feet.

Nat is passionately, totally in lust with a gorgeous British man who wants her back—unfortunately, he's her boss and married. Nat knows their affair can't last, but as long as they're working together, she can't help herself.

Holly is an actress who books jobs semi-regularly but still waits tables to pay the bills, and still has trouble behaving like a functional human around her striking and intelligent neighbor, Sven. She's realizing that she isn't the dewy-faced ingénue anymore and that it's time to grow up and think about what's next.

To top it all off, when the three friends head out to their favorite wine bar, they learn the bar is scheduled to close, effective immediately. In a moment of tipsy brazenness, Nat suggests that the three of them open their own wine bar, an unapologetically girly place for good wine and good friends—which leads to a challenge between the three women: though it's January 31st and a weird time to make a resolution, why wait until next year to change your life? While they're opening the bar, everyone agrees to make one major change in her life...which proves much easier to drink to than to stick to.

PRAISE

“Written with a wickedly wry sense of wit and graced with an engaging cast of characters, this bright and breezy novel is the literary equivalent of a frothy daiquiri and every bit as refreshing.” —Reader to Reader Online on Keep Calm and Carry a Big Drink

“[Gruenenfelder’s] women are smart, likable and good to each other.” —Kirkus Reviews on There’s Cake in My Future

KIM GRUENENFELDER lives in Los Angeles with her husband and son. In addition to her books, including A Total Waste of Makeup, Misery Loves Cabernet, There's Cake in My Future, and Keep Calm and Carry a Big Drink, she has written feature films, episodic teleplays and two stage plays.

Nights of the Living Dead

An Anthology

Jonathan Maberry and George A. Romero

An original anthology of zombie stories by other respected horror and thriller writers including Mira Grant, Jay Bonansinga, Carrie Ryan, and Chuck Wendig among others.

In 1968 the world experienced a brand new kind of terror with the debut of George A. Romero's landmark movie Night of the Living Dead. The newly dead rose to attack the living. Not as vampires or werewolves. This was something new...and terrifying. Since then, zombies have invaded every aspect of popular culture.

But it all started on that dreadful night in a remote farmhouse...

Nights of the Living Dead returns to that night, to the outbreak, to where it all began. New York Times bestselling author Jonathan Maberry teams with the godfather of the living dead himself, George A. Romero to present a collection of all new tales set during the 48 hours of that legendary outbreak.

Nights of the Living Dead includes stories by some of today's most important writers: Brian Keene, Carrie Ryan, Chuck Wendig, Craig Engler, David J. Schow, David Wellington, Isaac Marion, Jay Bonansinga, Joe R. Lansdale, Joe McKinney, John Russo, John Skipp, Keith R.A. DeCandido, Max Brallier, Mike Carey, Mira Grant, Neal Shusterman & Brandon Shusterman, and Sandra Brown & Ryan Brown. Plus original stories by Romero and Maberry!

For fans of The Walking Dead, World War Z, and anyone who loves scary stories. Take a bite out of this!

PRAISE

"A blend of sf, horror, technothriller, and crime novel, this is one of the best adrenaline reads out there." —Library Journal (starred review)

"Maberry evokes Lovecraftian elements and modern-day thriller tropes to craft a fast-paced tale." —Publishers Weekly

JONATHAN MABERRY is a New York Times bestselling author, five-time Bram Stoker Award winner, anthology editor, and comic book writer. He writes for adults and teens. He also writes comics for Marvel, IDW, and Dark Horse. He lives in Del Mar, California, with his wife, Sara Jo and their dog, Rosie.

GEORGE A ROMERO is an iconic filmmaker and editor. His most famous accomplishment is the creation of what we now know as "zombies" via his films Night of the Living Dead and Day of the Dead.

Sorrow Road

A Novel

Julia Keller

In the next powerful mystery from Julia Keller, Bel Elkins's sister goes undercover into a West Virginia nursing home when Alzheimer patients start dying at alarming rates.

In 1944, three young men from a small town in West Virginia are among the American forces participating in D-Day, changing the fortunes of the war with one bold stroke. How is that moment, aboard a Navy ship as it barrels toward the Normandy shore, related to the death of an old man in an Appalachian nursing home seventy-two years later?

In Sorrow Road, the latest mystery from Pulitzer Prize-winning writer Julia Keller, two stories—one set in the turbulent era of World War II and one in the present day—are woven together to create a piercingly poignant tale of memory and family, of love and murder.

Belfa Elkins, prosecuting attorney in Acker's Gap, West Virginia, is asked by an old acquaintance to look into the death of her beloved father in an Alzheimer's care facility. Did he die of natural causes—or was something more sinister to blame? And that's not the only issue with which Bell is grappling: Her daughter Carla has moved back home. But something's not right. Carla is desperately hiding a secret.

Once again, past and present, good and evil, and revenge and forgiveness clash in a riveting story set in the shattered landscape of Acker's Gap, where the skies can seem dark even at high noon and the mountains lean close to hear the whispered lament of the people trapped in their shadow.

PRAISE

"A beautifully crafted mystery in which Keller explores love, hate, and poverty in a place of stunning natural beauty." —Kirkus (starred) on Last Ragged Breath

"What particularly distinguishes Julia Keller's series about Bell Elkins, a West Virginia prosecutor, is its sense of social conscience...powerfully affecting." —USA Today on Summer of the Dead

"Keller crafts a cracking whodunnit with many a red herring, but her real accomplishment is the unflinching depiction of rural poverty and the ways the inhabitants of Acker's Gap hold on to their dignity." —Oprah.com on Summer of the Dead

JULIA KELLER spent twelve years as a reporter and editor for the Chicago Tribune, where she won a Pulitzer Prize. A recipient of a Nieman Fellowship at Harvard University, she was born in West Virginia and lives in Chicago and Ohio.

Seducing Abby Rhodes

J. D. Mason

The propulsive second novel in a new contemporary trilogy about unforgettable love, scorching desire, and dangerous secrets.

When Abigail Rhodes bought that old house she fell in love with in Blink, Texas, she got more than she bargained for. After being told by the local psychic that it is filled with a passionate energy from the previous owners, who died years ago, Abby decides to fix up her beloved house and reluctantly moves in. But ever since then, strange things have been happening in her newly renovated home, and Abby has been plagued with dreams that wake her up and leave her breathless.

After a tumultuous life these last few years, Jordan Tunson is following what amounts to a trail of breadcrumbs in an effort to find a renewed sense of purpose. Searching for the truth about the man his adoptive-father really was, Jordan makes his way to the old house where his father was murdered, in Blink—and right to the petite, understated beauty that answers the door. It's not long before Jordan realizes, quite unexpectedly, that Abby is the perfect woman for him. Jordan doesn't believe in ghosts or fate, but he does know that the powerful connection he feels for this woman started the day he met her in that house and he is determined to make her his.

Robin is a successful Corporate Attorney, and was proud to be the lover of the most sought after bachelor in the state of Texas--until he abruptly breaks off their relationship, leaving her confused, heartbroken and bitter. When she discovers that he's left her for another woman, a woman she considers beneath...

The White Mirror

A Mystery

Elsa Hart

In Elsa Hart's second mesmerizing novel, 18th-century Chinese librarian Li Du is crossing a snowy valley in Tibet when he discovers a dead monk with a strange symbol painted on his chest.

In the follow-up to Elsa Hart's critically acclaimed debut, Jade Dragon Mountain, Li Du, an imperial librarian and former exile in 18th century China, is now an independent traveler. He is journeying with a trade caravan to Lhasa when a detour brings them to a valley hidden between mountain passes. On the icy planks of a wooden bridge, a monk sits in contemplation. Closer inspection reveals that the monk is dead, apparently of a self-inflicted wound. His robes are rent, revealing a strange symbol painted on his chest.

When the rain turns to snow, the caravan is forced to seek hospitality from the local lord while they wait for the storm to pass. The dead monk, Li Du soon learns, was a reclusive painter. According to the family, his bizarre suicide is not surprising, given his obsession with the demon world. But Li Du is convinced that all is not as it seems. Why did the caravan leader detour to this particular valley? Why does the lord's heir sleep in the barn like a servant? And who is the mysterious woman traveling through the mountain wilds?

Trapped in the snow, surrounded by secrets and an unexplained grief that haunts the manor, Li Du cannot distract himself from memories he's tried to leave behind. As he discovers irrefutable evidence of the painter's murder and pieces together the dark circumstances of his death, Li Du must face the reason he will not go home and, ultimately, the reason why he must.

PRAISE

"[A] first-class debut...Augurs a brilliant career for Hart: the careful characterization, the beautifully detailed research (minced yak tongue, anyone?), and an innate feel for the enigmatic meanings of murder." —USA Today

"Elsa Hart recreates the world of 18th-century China with assurance and skill." —The Wall Street Journal

ELSA HART was born in Rome, Italy, but her earliest memories are of Moscow, where her family lived until 1991. Since then she has lived in the Czech Republic, the U.S.A., and China. She earned a B.A. from Swarthmore College and a J.D. from Washington University in St. Louis School of Law. The White Mirror is her second novel.

The House of Dreams

A Novel

Kate Lord Brown

A beautifully written novel based on the true-life story of Varian Fry, called “the artists’ Schindler,” who rescued thousands of Europe’s finest creative minds from certain death in WWII.

In 2000, Sophie Cass, an ambitious journalist, may have finally found her big break. Convinced a celebrated painter in the Hamptons is hiding a dark secret, she sets off to unravel the truth about his past. Her research takes her back decades to 1940, as an international group of artists and intellectuals gather at The House of Dreams, a beautiful villa just outside Marseilles where American journalist Varian Fry and his remarkable team are working to help them escape France. Despite the incredible danger they all face, The House of Dreams is a place of true camaraderie and creativity—and the setting of a love affair that changed the course of the painter’s life forever. But as Sophie digs further into his past, she begins to wonder whether some secrets are better left untouched.

Inspired by the real-life heroism of Varian Fry and the volunteers who risked their lives to help save legendary figures like Marc Chagall, Hannah Arendt, and Max Ernst, Kate Lord Brown’s The House of Dreams is a lyrically told novel of great courage, love, and the power of art.

PRAISE

“Brown brings a cinematic sensibility to her writing, making the long-ago exploits of Fry and his cohorts pulse with life, with an ever-present sense of danger looming overhead. There is much to admire about this novel and its strong cast of characters, most of all its portrayal of the cost—and legacy—of real courage.”

—Booklist (starred review)

“Brown sheds a literary light on the unsung heroes of the ARC ... [A] nicely written and worthy read.” —Library Journal

“An exciting read with many characters you find yourself rooting for.” —Fresh Fiction

KATE LORD BROWN is the internationally bestselling author of The Perfume Garden, which was shortlisted for the UK Romantic Novel of the Year. She won a BBC International Radio Playwriting Competition, Middle East region, was a finalist in ITV’s The People’s Author competition, and has an MA in creative writing. She grew up in Devon, England, and currently lives in the Middle East with her family.

The Adventurist

A Novel

J. Bradford Hipps

At a software company in a Southern city, one lovesick, whip-smart software engineer has a crisis of confidence, in the tradition of Richard Ford and Walker Percy.

In the anonymous office park of a modern software company, software engineer Henry Hurt is a man in the middle: of life, of career, and of self-assessment. Henry is mired in his corporate responsibilities until his deathless office existence is torpedoed by the loss of his mother.

Overcome by “the pall,” Henry seeks escape in a quest for love and purpose, which is occasioned by a crisis in his company’s fortunes. Dodging an Iago-like rival, he finds love with a colleague in his department, endangers his bond with his family, and finally confronts the single urgent question of his life.

The Adventurist is about relationships: Henry has complicated ones with his sister, Gretchen, who has stayed at home with their father; his lover Jane, a sleek and efficient mirror image of Henry; and a tantalizing potential girlfriend, Madison, the ultimate free spirit. But his relationship to the responsibilities in that anonymous office park may change his fortunes even more than the women in his life.

PRAISE

“The Adventurist activated most of my cranial pleasure centers. It’s a brisk and polished and somehow very American novel. It moves confidently, that is, until it can no longer pretend to do so. It delivers to the reader internal wounds that will fail to clot.” —Dwight Garner, The New York Times

A former programmer, J. BRADFORD HIPPS turned to fiction after a ten-year software career. He received his graduate degree from the University of Houston Creative Writing Program, where he was awarded the Inprint Michener Prize. He lives with his wife and children in Texas.

The Summer That Melted Everything

A Novel

Tiffany McDaniel

The devil comes to Ohio in Tiffany McDaniel's breathtaking and heartbreaking literary debut, set in the 1980s in the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains, an August 2016 Indie Next Pick.

Fielding Bliss has never forgotten the summer of 1984: the year a heat wave scorched Breathed, Ohio. The year he became friends with the devil.

Sal seems to appear out of nowhere—a bruised and tattered thirteen-year-old boy claiming to be the devil himself answering an invitation. Fielding Bliss, the son of a local prosecutor, brings Sal home, where he's welcomed into the Bliss family, who assume he's a runaway from a nearby farm town.

When word spreads that the devil has come to Breathed, not everyone is happy to welcome this self-proclaimed fallen angel. Murmurs follow him and tensions rise, along with the temperature as an unbearable heat wave rolls into town right along with him. As strange accidents start to occur, riled by the feverish heat, some in the town start to believe that Sal is exactly who he claims to be. While the Bliss family wrestle with their own personal demons, a fanatic drives the town to the brink of a catastrophe that will change this sleepy Ohio backwater forever.

PRAISE

"This debut novel shines with beauty and lyricism... Give this to fans of atmospheric fiction, particularly those who enjoy the grit of Donald Ray Pollock, the foreshadowing of Shirley Jackson, and the mounting suspense of Peter Straub." —Library Journal

"[McDaniel] is capable of stirring powerful emotions...an ambitious novel that will invite thought and surely spark discussion." —Booklist

"A bold and surprising debut." —Robert Morgan, New York Times bestselling author of Gap Creek

"Once this world has hold of you, it won't let you go." —Jacquelyn Mitchard, New York Times bestselling author The Deep End of the Ocean

TIFFANY MCDANIEL's writing is inspired by the rolling hills and buckeye woods of Ohio, where she lives. The Summer That Melted Everything is her debut novel.

Unit 416

J. Leon Pridgen II and A. John Vinci

One military unit. Five criminals. This group needs all the strength and street-smarts they have in order to recover stolen weapons. They used to be in jail. And now, they take no prisoners...

Five tough as nails criminals. One hard-assed Sergeant. The only chance to change their lives. These are the men of Unit 416. Push them hard and they push harder. Things are about to get deadly—but with the skill and swagger of Unit 416, no mission is impossible...

Born and raised in America's hardest streets, five men are faced with the ultimate choice: continue their lives of crime and incarceration or serve their country and join the army. Master Sergeant Keeble is faced with no good choice: be the leader of a new section called Unit 416 or take him and his surgically-repaired leg out of the game for good. At first, all Keeble has to work with is a ragtag group of men with no regard for the rules and a huge chip on their shoulders. But as the men go through training and more together, they form a group so tight, so formidable, that nothing can break them apart. And when a secretive CIA directive leads them straight into the heart of Uzbekistan to infiltrate an arms cartel, Unit 416's men will need all the grit, tough—and heart—they have in order to see this mission home.

J. LEON PRIDGEN II is originally from Aberdeen, Maryland grew up at Ft. Bragg, NC and resides in Mooresville, NC. Leon's journey in life so far has taken him from the jungles of Panama with the 82nd Airborne Division, to Hollywood film sets co-starring in movies.

A. JOHN VINCI is a writer, film maker and entrepreneur. He has lived, worked or traveled in over 40 countries and is a Fellow of The Explorers Club.

Tom Clancy's Op-Center: Dark Zone

Created by Tom Clancy and Steve Pieczenik, Written by Jeff Rovin and George Galdorisi

In this race-to-the-finish thriller in the New York Times bestselling series, the brutal murder of an undercover agent reveals a plot to foment a full-fledged war between Russia and Ukraine.

Former US Ambassador to the Ukraine Douglas Flannery meets with an old friend and former spy near New York's South Street Seaport. She is seeking his help to thwart a Russian plan to overrun her native Ukraine, but those for whom she is working propose an infinitely more dangerous scheme, one that could draw in NATO forces and possibly ignite World War III. Moments later, as she jogs along the East River, her throat is slashed.

Within hours, Op-Center learns of the killing and alarm bells go off. Director Chase Williams and his team have been following events as both Ukraine, her NATO allies, and Russia rapidly deploy forces in a dangerous game of brinkmanship. But the secret that Flannery has learned threatens to take the looming battle to a whole new and very lethal level. Using cutting edge techniques of cyber warfare and spycraft, Op-Center must respond to the rapidly unfolding crisis before the U.S. is forced to take sides in a conflict that could change history.

PRAISE

"Suspenseful...An Op-Center book is always a master class in military acronyms and hardware...the simple hostage situations keep the tension cranked high and will satisfy Clancy fans old and new." —Publishers Weekly

"A top-notch military thriller, combining politics, suspense, and action. Couch and Galdorisi continue to make the Clancy brand shine." —Booklist on Into the Fire

"With intricate plotting, plenty of action, and characters – even villains – that are more than cardboard cutouts, Tom Clancy's OpCenter: Into the Fire is definitely a book that will leave you sleep-deprived." —Defense Media Network on Into the Fire

JEFF ROVIN is the author of more than 100 books, fiction and nonfiction, both under his own name, under various pseudonyms, or as a ghostwriter, including numerous New York Times bestsellers and over a dozen of the original Tom Clancy's Op-Center novels.

GEORGE GALDORISI is a career naval aviator. He has written several books, including (with Dick Couch), the New York Times bestseller, Tom Clancy Presents: Act of Valor and Tom Clancy's Op-Center: Scorched Earth.

A Novel

Lisa Scottoline

From the New York Times bestselling author comes the fourth book in the Rosato & DiNunzio thriller series.

Ten-year-old Patrick O'Brien is a natural target at school. Shy, dyslexic, and small for his age, he tries to hide his first-grade reading level from everyone: from his classmates, from the grandfather who cares for him, and from the teachers who are supposed to help him. But the real trouble begins when Patrick is accused of attacking a school aide. The aide promptly quits and sues the boy, his family, and the school district. Patrick's grandfather turns to the law firm of Rosato & DiNunzio for help, and Mary DiNunzio is on the case. Soon Mary becomes Patrick's true champion and his only hope for security and justice. But there is more to the story than meets the eye and Patrick might be more troubled than he seems. With twists at every turn and secrets about the family coming to light, Mary DiNunzio might have found the case that can make her a true protector, or break her heart...

PRAISE

"There is nothing as riveting as a skilled writer creating tense courtroom scenes and Scottoline does that in Corrupted." —Huffington Post

"Scottoline writes terrific legal fiction with warmth, smart characters and lots of humor and heart. Her legions of fans will be happy with this one, and it should find her new readers as well." —Booklist on Betrayed

"Compelling." —Publishers Weekly on Betrayed

LISA SCOTTOLINE is a New York Times bestselling and Edgar Award-winning author of twenty-seven novels. She has 30 million copies of her books in print in the U.S., she has been published in thirty-five countries, and her thrillers have been optioned for television and film. Lisa writes a weekly column with her daughter, Francesca Serritella, for The Philadelphia Inquirer, and those critically acclaimed stories have been adapted into a series of memoirs. She lives in the Philadelphia area.

Bad Deeds

Lisa Renee Jones

The next novel in a stunningly sexy, explosive Dirty Money contemporary romance series from heralded New York Times bestselling author Lisa Renee Jones.

Wall Street meets the Sons of Anarchy in Bad Deeds, the smoldering, scorching next novel in the explosively sexy Dirty Money series from New York Times bestselling author Lisa Renee Jones.

Would you bleed for the one you love?

To save his family empire from the grip of the drug cartel, Shane is pushed to the edge of darkness, forced to make choices he might never make. His father is dying. His brother is desperate to rule the empire and this means war and all gloves are off. His brother only thought he knew what dirty meant. Shane is about to give it new meaning. There is another war brewing though, and that one, is inside him, his battle between right and wrong, light and dark, and in the heat of the night, it is Emily he turns to for escape. Driving her to new limits, pushing her to accept a part of him that even he cannot.

In every one of Shane's seductive demands, Emily can taste and feel, his torment, his struggle to save his family and not lose himself. But he is losing himself, and that is a problem just as dangerous as her secret, that still lurk in the shadows, a threat to the Brandon Family waiting to erupt. No matter where she and Shane have traveled, or will travel in the future, she can't just sit back and watch him become everything he hates, everything he never wanted to become, everything she tried to save him from when she tried to run. It could be their undoing, the end. His end.

This is war, blood will spill, a...

The Matchmakers of Minnow Bay

A Novel

Kelly Harms

“The perfect feel-good read. Don’t miss this delightful novel!”
—Susan Wiggs, #1 New York Times bestselling author

Lily Stewart has reached a crossroads in her life. Her painting career hasn’t taken off, her best friend has changed beyond recognition, her relationship is a constant disappointment, and now she can’t keep up with the rising cost of living in the city. With no one to turn to, Lily is forced to move from her beloved apartment, but while packing she comes across a piece of mail that had slipped to the back of her junk drawer: a letter detailing further action needed to finalize the annulment of a quickie Vegas wedding. From ten years ago!

By chance, Lily finds her way to the magical Minnow Bay Inn. There she will discover not just a place to lay her head, but new friends, new inspiration, and maybe even a new chance to fall in love.

PRAISE

“The Matchmakers of Minnow Bay thoroughly entertains as it explores friendship, flings, and finally finding yourself—a funny, fresh voice ideal for this charming coming-into-her-age novel.” —Christie Ridgway, USA Today bestselling author of the Beach House No. 9 and Cabin Fever series

“Delightful, and sure to captivate readers and gain new fans for author Kelly Harms. Sparkling dialogue and a winning heroine, who finds her big-girl panties [and] love along the way.” —Eileen Goudge, New York Times bestselling author of Garden of Lies

“Devastatingly funny, the talented Kelly Harms is one to watch.” —Colleen Oakley, author of Before I Go

KELLY HARMS is a former editor and literary agent who has worked with a wide array of bestselling and award-winning authors of commercial fiction. She traded New York City for the writing life in Madison, Wisconsin, where she lives with her adorable and sometimes imperious son, Griffin. She is the author of The Good Luck Girls of Shipwreck Lane.

Way of the Reaper

My Greatest Untold Missions and the Art of Being a Sniper

Nicholas Irving with Gary Brozek

Now in paperback, the thrilling account of Nick “The Reaper” Irving’s 10 greatest sniper kill missions that provide insight into the art of being a sniper.

From the legendary special operations sniper and New York Times bestselling author of The Reaper comes a rare and powerful book on the art of being a sniper. Way of the Reaper is a step-by-step accounting of how a sniper works, through the lens of Irving’s most significant missions—none of which have been told before. Each mission is an in-depth look at a new element of eliminating the enemy, from intel to luck, recon to weaponry. Told in a thrilling narrative, this is also a heart-pounding true story of some of The Reaper’s boldest missions including the longest shot of his career on a human target of over half a mile.

In Iraq and Afghanistan, Nick Irving earned his nickname in blood, destroying the enemy with his sniper rifle and in deadly firefights behind a .50 caliber machine gun. He engaged a Taliban suicide bomber during a vicious firefight, used nearly silent sub-sonic ammo, and was the target of snipers himself. Way of the Reaper attempts to place the reader in the heat of battle, experiencing the same dangers, horrors and acts of courage Irving faced as an elite member of the 3rd Ranger Battalion.

Readers will experience the dangers that all snipers must face, while learning what it takes to come an elite manhunter. Like the Reaper himself, this explosive book blazes new territory and takes no prisoners.

PRAISE

Praise for The Reaper:

“A gripping account from a man whose lethal aim took out 33 Taliban fighters on one deployment, a record.” —New York Daily News

“Gripping... Irving’s book is a focused, fast-paced tale that, like Irving, never loses sense of its mission.” —San Diego Union Tribune

NICHOLAS IRVING spent six years in the Army’s Special Operations 3rd Ranger Battalion 75th Ranger Regiment, serving from demolitions assaulter to Master Sniper. He was the first African American to serve as a sniper in his battalion and is now the owner of HardShoot, where he trains personnel in the art of long-range shooting. He also appears on the Fox reality show American Grit. He lives in San Antonio, Texas.

GARY BROZEK has co-authored nearly 20 books including 5 New York Times bestsellers.

Emerald Coast

A Novel

Anita Hughes

A glamorous love story set on the idyllic Emerald Coast about a newly divorced interior designer and the ex-husband she runs into while trying to escape the frustrations of their failed marriage.

Lily Bristol arrives at a luxurious resort in Sardinia for the grand opening of her newest home furnishing store on the Emerald Coast. She's a successful business woman with an international chain of stores from San Francisco to Milan. Thirty-two and newly divorced, she's ready to handle things on her own. At least until her private butler, Hector, escorts her to a beautiful suite where she notices a suspiciously familiar pair of men's slippers and shaving kit.

Lily is horrified. Her ex-husband Oliver moved out of their restored Connecticut farmhouse six months ago, but they booked this trip when they were trying to save their marriage and never cancelled the reservation. Oliver, a food critic for the New York Times, is here covering Sardinia's hottest new restaurant. The only other available room is the adjoining suite; and worse, Oliver isn't alone. He's brought a twenty-something named Angela with him.

Lily is determined to make do and enlists Hector to find her a suitable man. But it's not as easy to find new love as they both expected. When Lily and Oliver find themselves alone on a very important night, they turn to each other. Sparks begin to fly, but can they be together without breaking each other's hearts?

Set on the glamorous Italian island, Emerald Coast is a touching and humorous story about marriage and the difficulty of finding love and happiness at the same time.

Telling Tales

A Vera Stanhope Mystery

Ann Cleeves

Published for the first time in the U.S., an early book in award-winning crime novelist Ann Cleeves's Vera Stanhope series, brought to life by Brenda Blethyn in the hit TV series Vera.

It has been ten years since Jeanie Long was charged with the murder of fifteen-year-old Abigail Mantel. Now residents of the East Yorkshire village of Elvet are disturbed to hear of new evidence proving Jeanie's innocence. Abigail's killer is still at large.

For one young woman, Emma Bennett, the revelation brings back haunting memories of her vibrant best friend--and of that fearful winter's day when she had discovered her body lying cold in a ditch.

As Inspector Vera Stanhope makes fresh enquiries on the peninsula and villagers are hauled back to a time they hoped to forget, tensions begin to mount. But are people afraid of the killer or of their own guilty pasts? With each person's story revisited, the Inspector begins to suspect that some deadly secrets are threatening to unfurl...

PRAISE

"Nothing short of riveting." —Louise Penny

"Cleeves' taut, atmospheric thriller will keep readers guessing until the last page...Chilling." —Publishers Weekly (starred review)

"Cleeves offers up evocative settings and flawed characters with depth, making her mysteries wonderfully addictive." —Library Journal (starred review)

"More Vera, please." —Booklist (starred review)

"Intricate and engrossing . . . offers readers the pleasures of the traditional locked room/isolated island mystery." —Washington Post Book World

ANN CLEEVES writes two series of traditional mysteries, both of which have been turned into hit TV series. The Vera Stanhope books have been made into the hit series Vera starring Brenda Blethyn. The Shetland novels feature Inspector Jimmy Perez and are being filmed by the BBC and titled Shetland. Both series are also available in the U.S. through Netflix, PBS, and the Acorn Channel. Ann Cleeves lives in England.

A Wife of Noble Character

A Novel

Yvonne Georgina Puig

A juicy, sprawling comedy of manners about a group of thirtysomethings navigating friendship, love, and their fledgling careers among Houston's high-powered oil-money elite.

Thirty-year-old Vivienne Cally is wealthy in name only. Orphaned as a child and raised by a cold, regal aunt, Vivienne was taught to rely on her beauty to marry a wealthy and respectable man who will honor the Cally name. A beloved fixture in high Texan society, she suffers no shortage of access to some of the city's most eligible bachelors. Preston Duffin has known Vivienne and her set since childhood. He's never shared their social aspirations or status but he is liked and respected for his sharp wit and intelligence. About to graduate from a prestigious architecture program, he is both fascinated and repelled by this group of friends he sits on the cusp of, one that shares none of his curiosity about the world beyond Houston. He's long admired Vivienne's beauty and grace, but isn't sure he holds any place in such a traditional life. Intrigued by Preston's ambitions and the extent to which he challenges her, Vivienne both courts Preston's attention and rebuffs his critiques of her predictable, antiquated priorities and values.

Inspired by Edith Wharton's The House of Mirth, A Wife of Noble Character shares the original novel's astute social commentary while illuminating a coming-of-age wholly unique to the twenty-first century. Part biting wit, part good old fashioned love story, this book will charm both fans of Wharton and anyone who has every struggled to find their way in life.

YVONNE GEORGINA PUIG's fiction and essays have appeared in Salon, Variety, Los Angeles Magazine, and The Texas Observer, among others. She holds a Masters in Professional Writing from USC. She lives in Santa Monica with her husband.

A Killer Ball at Honeychurch Hall

Hannah Dennison

In the tradition of M.C. Beaton, a charming and witty whodunit, set at an English manor house, the third book in this amazing new hit series.

In this delightful new mystery, our heroine Kat Stanford stumbles upon a hidden room in an abandoned wing at Honeychurch Hall.

However, Kat's initial excitement soon ends in horror. There, lying on the cold, stone floor, Kat comes across the body of a young woman dressed in an Egyptian toga and wearing a tawdry fairground trinket around her broken neck.

Suspicion falls on some of those who live at the Hall—both upstairs and down—and even those who are just passing through.

Matters come to a head as a killer lurks amid the aristocracy, and Downton Abbey fans will want more Killer Balls at Honeychurch Hall.

PRAISE

Praise for the Honeychurch Hall Mystery series:

“Downton Abbey was yesterday, Murder at Honeychurch Hall lifts the lid on today’s grand country estate in all its tarnished, scheming, inbred, deranged glory.” —Catriona McPherson

“The perfect classic English village mystery, but with the addition of charm, wit, and a thoroughly modern touch.” —Rhys Bowen

“Downton Abbey meets Midsomer Murders in this lively and entertaining series debut.” —Marcia Talley, award-winning author of the Hannah Ives mystery series

HANNAH DENNISON began her writing career as a trainee reporter for a small West Country newspaper in Devon, England. Hannah is a member of Sisters in Crime, Mystery Writers of America, the Willamette Writers, British Crime Writers’ Association and Toastmasters International. Hannah Dennison is an especially big hit with librarians. Coincidentally her mother is a docent at Greenway, Agatha Christie’s summer home, which has been turned into a museum.

The Big Redhead Book

Inside the Secret Society of Red Hair

Erin La Rosa

A humorous guide to everything redhead, from pop culture to history to fashion.

The Big Redhead Book: Inside the Secret Society of Red Hair is your guide into one of the most elite societies in the world, letting you in on all of the top-secret things involving this rare part of our population. Equal parts pop culture book and humorous stories, this book serves as your tour through this exclusive club, covering famous redheads, redheads in bed, and redhead beauty, among other categories!

Whether you are a redhead, know a redhead, or are just an enthusiast, this book explores the realities, the myths, and where red hair actually originates (it's not Ireland). Author Erin La Rosa not only delivers the facts, statistics, and undeniable realities of being a ginger, but she also weaves in her own personal and hilarious stories about being red. Being a redhead is not just a hair color, it's a lifestyle—and this book is your own exclusive peek into that fabulous world.

Some surprising facts about redheads that you will discover include:

- The association between redheads and humor came from redheaded slaves in ancient Greece
- There are over 30 leading or recurring redhead characters in Disney and Pixar films
- Redhead women have more sex, more threesomes, and more orgasms than other women
- Redheads have a temperature-detecting gene that makes them more sensitive to heat and cold
- Redheads have a higher pain tolerance

PRAISE

“Even though I live with a woman, and even lived inside one for a while, until recently I had no way to help them, because I’m a man. Now, however, I can just hand them a copy of the funny, thoughtful Womanskills.” —Rob Delaney, on Womanskills

“This wise, irreverent compendium of life hacks finds the sweet spot between Amy Sedaris and Worst Case Survival Guides... An instant classic.” —Janet Fitch, author of White Oleander and Paint It Black, on Womanskills

ERIN LA ROSA is a writer and performer living in Los Angeles. As a writer for BuzzFeed, she frequently writes about the perils and triumphs of being a redhead. Before BuzzFeed, Erin worked for the comedy websites Funny or Die and MadAtoms, as well as E!'s Fashion Police, Wetpaint, and Ecorazzi. Erin has appeared on CNN, Headline News, Jimmy Kimmel, and The Today Show on behalf of BuzzFeed.

Fighting God

An Atheist Manifesto for a Religious World

David Silverman

The president of American Atheists, branded “Mr. Atheist Pants” by Stephen Colbert, presents an unflinching manifesto for the nonbeliever.

Fighting God is a firebrand manifesto from one of the most recognizable faces of atheism. In his book, Silverman—a walking, talking atheist billboard known for his appearances on Fox News—discusses the effectiveness, ethics and impact of the in-your-face-atheist who refuses to be silent.

Silverman argues that religion is more than just wrong: it is malevolent and does not deserve our respect. It is our duty to be outspoken and do what we can to bring religion down. Examining the mentality, methods and issues facing the firebrand atheist, Silverman presents an overwhelming argument for firebrand atheism and reveals:

- All religion is cafeteria religion and almost all agnostics are atheists.
- American society grants religion a privileged status, despite the intentions of the Founding Fathers.
- Christian politicians have adversely (and un-Constitutionally) affected our society with regard to science, health, women’s rights, and gay rights.
- The notion of “atheist Jews” is a lie forced on us by religion.
- It is not “Islamophobia” to observe dangerous teachings and disproportionate violence in Islam.
- Atheists are slowly but surely winning the battle.

Fighting God is a provocative, unapologetic book that takes religion to task and will give inspiration to non-believers and serve as the ultimate answer to apologists.

PRAISE

“Silverman’s methods are refreshingly honest. He uncompromisingly believes in equality for everyone and the end of religious privilege in America, and he is not afraid to fight, using words, to bring about that reality.” —Library Journal

“An evangelical manifesto.... For the author, the ultimate arbiter is human rationality, which he holds supreme.” —Kirkus

DAVID SILVERMAN is the president of American Atheists and one of the best-known atheists in America. He has appeared on several T.V. programs for on-air debates, including, the O’Reilly Factor, Hannity & Colmes, Scarborough Country, and CNN Paula Zahn NOW. He lives in New Jersey with his wife and child.

Queen Victoria's Mysterious Daughter

A Biography of Princess Louise

Lucinda Hawksley

Intrigue, scandal, and secrets abound in this lush royal biography penned by the great-great-great granddaughter of Charles Dickens.

In Queen Victoria's Mysterious Daughter, Lucinda Hawksley delves into artistic and royal secrets to discover the life of Princess Louise, whose true story has either been lost in history or has been deliberately kept secret. The sixth child of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert had a difficult childhood and troubled adolescence, a world away from the usual perception of the life of a privileged princess. As well as being a prominent member of the Aesthetic art world, Princess Louise was a passionate campaigner for women's rights, health reform, and education for all.

What was so scandalous about this princess that her files in the Royal Archives and at her husband's home, Inveraray Castle in Scotland, still need to be locked away? Can we believe, as many do, that Louise in fact gave birth secretly to an illegitimate royal child?

Here is our best evidence yet that Queen Victoria's many secrets have yet to be fully disclosed.

PRAISE

"[I]lluminating Hawksley conveys Louise's story fully and clearly, but just as importantly, she shows the devastating damage Queen Victoria inflicted on her extensive family." —Kirkus

"[A] sympathetic portrait of Queen Victoria's 'unconventional' daughter... Hawksley shows that Louise was 'ahead of her time' in supporting women's rights and was 'one of the most intriguing of Victorian women.'" —Publishers Weekly

"Strong in its presentations of its subject's personality and social circles." —Library Journal

LUCINDA HAWKSLEY is a writer and lecturer on art history and nineteenth-century history. She is the great, great, great granddaughter of Charles and Catherine Dickens and is a patron of the Charles Dickens Museum in London.

One Thousand White Women (20th Anniversary Edition)

The Journals of May Dodd

Jim Fergus

The 20th anniversary edition of Jim Fergus's award winning classic novel

One Thousand White Women begins with May Dodd's journey west into the unknown. A government program in which women are brought west as brides for the Cheyenne, is her vehicle. What follows is the story of May's adventures: her marriage to Little Wolf, chief of the Cheyenne nation, and her conflict of being caught between two worlds, loving two men, living two lives. Jim Fergus has so vividly depicted the American West that it is as if these diaries are a capsule in time.

PRAISE

“A most impressive novel that melds the physical world to the spiritual. One Thousand White Women is engaging, entertaining, well-written, and well-told. It will be widely read for a long time, as will the rest of Jim Fergus's work.” --Rick Bass, author of Where the Sea Used to Be

“Jim Fergus knows his country in a way that's evocative of Dee Brown and all the other great writers of the American West and its native peoples. But One Thousand White Women is more than a chronicle of the Old West. It's a superb tale of sorrow, suspense, exultation, and triumph that leaves the reader waiting to turn the page and wonderfully wrung out at the end.”...

Jim Fergus is an award winning writer whose work has appeared in numerous national magazines and newspapers. He is the author of several fiction and nonfiction books. Jim divides his time between southern Arizona, northern Colorado, and France.
