A brilliant new way to be inspired by art.

Get into Art: Places features famous pieces of art that depict scenes, such as serene landscapes, snowy mountains, and busy streets and waterways. From artists such as Van Gogh, Canaletto, Klee, and Hokusai, each work is paired with a related art project perfect for young artists' hands.

This gorgeous art book explores a wide range of artists' work while encouraging children to develop their own skills and techniques. It is perfect for active young artists of all abilities. The book features twelve artworks, with information about each work and the artist. Art activities are varied, intriguing, and clearly explained and will act as a springboard for plenty of artistic experiments.

Susie Brooks has a history of art degree and has worked as an editor and writer of children's non-fiction and picture books for over ten years. She's an artist herself and does occasional art workshops with young children.

Susie Brooks is also the creator of the art projects in this book.

Praise For...Get Into Art: Animals

(starred review) Brooks' goal to convince her readers that art is not just something one observes, but rather something that one does. It's impossible not to be intrigued. . . . The projects range in difficulty from those with beginners skills to those suited for more experienced young artists. . . . Brooks believes that a deeper appreciation of high art can be had by kids, and this revelatory offering encourages them to find it.

The listing of a price for any title in this catalog is not intended to control the resale price thereof. Kingfisher is a participant in the Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication program. Most of the titles appearing in this catalog will carry CIP data. ISBN indicates the International Standard Book Number. Covers shown in this catalog may not be final.

Macmillan reserves the right to ship loose copies of titles included in displays and prepacks if the displays and prepacks are not available.

Prices are correct at the time of going to print, but may be subject to change.

Children's Book Council

Kingfisher is a member of the Children's Book Council (CBC), a nonprofit trade organization that encourages the use and enjoyment of books and related literacy materials for young people. Our books from the current and immediately preceding year are available for examination at the CBC Library, 54 West 39th Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10018. The library is open to the public from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday
