The Paleo Kids Cookbook

Transition Your Family to Delicious Grain- and Gluten-free Food for a Lifetime of Healthy Eating

Jennifer Robins

Give your kids a healthy start by transitioning from a starch laden standard American diet to grain- and gluten-free food your children will love.

After months of health crisis and illnesses, Jennifer Robins found the answer to her symptoms and diagnosis to become gluten-free and Paleo. When her three children began to show similar sensitivities and intolerances, Jennifer adapted her family to follow the same lifestyle and found that omitting the same inflammatory items from their diets greatly improved their health as well.

Jennifer is back, following up her bestselling book, Down South Paleo, which was just mentioned on Bookscan's Top 100 Adult Non-Fiction list. Jennifer outlines how simple the process to transition your children to a Paleo lifestyle can be. The keys to making Paleo work for children include having a backup plan, like bringing healthy snacks like Raw Cookie Dough Bites with you so cravings are covered and packing lunches to provide your kids with the foods they can enjoy, such as Mummy Dogs. You'll recreate favorites such as Sweet & Sour Chicken and Paleo Mac N Cheese, as kids take comfort in their favorite foods so they won't feel like they're missing anything. Also, while essentially a cookbook packed with smart recipes kids love, this book will show you how to get your family involved by putting them on the road to making their own good food choices.

Jennifer Robins is the author of Down South Paleo and The New Yiddish Kitchen. She is the founder and author of the food blog Predominantly Paleo. She has guest blogged for The Real Food Guide, Paleo Parents, Mother Earth Living, The Paleo Mom, The Nourished Cave Man and more. Jennifer lives in Arlington, Virginia.

Carine Goren

Enjoy a sweet trip down memory lane and grasp your guide to keepsake recipes with new and simple techniques to old favorites from one of the most celebrated cooking traditions.

While today's kitchens have become more technologically advanced, there is an increasing amount of new bakers who wish to learn their families' good old recipes. Carine Goren, a baking phenomenon on Israeli TV, has spent years patiently researching and testing to determine the best of our grandmothers' recipes and make them approachable in a modern kitchen. As your baby gets older, you can introduce more diverse flavors and textures like Roasted Root Vegetable Soup, Grain-Free Breakfast Biscuit or Grassfed Beef Stew with Marrow. Cancer Hates Tea

A Unique Preventive and Therapeutic Lifestyle Change That Says 'F&% You' to Cancer*

Maria Uspenski

For anyone who's had cancer, is in the process of treatment and self-help for those worried, this book makes anyone into a tea lover with a purpose— to give cancer the middle finger.

Green tea is the most studied anti-cancer plant over the past 10 years, as more than 5,000 medical studies have been published on the health benefits of tea, with over 1,000 of those focusing on tea and cancer. The NIH stance on green tea is that research indicates it is possibly effective against several types of cancer, clogged arteries, osteoporosis and Parkinson's disease; likely effective in managing high cholesterol; and safe for adults who drink five cups a day.

Maria's goal is simple: easily relate to you what she has learned about and experienced with how tea works to help your body's defenses against cancer. Maria is not a medical professional, and no statement in this book should be interpreted as direction or prescription, but through her explanations, she breaks down years of her research – her obsession after her own fight with cancer, how tea fights cancer and how you should be drinking it. While humorous in tone, Maria does not intend to make light of the serious research that forms the basis for the understanding. This book is intended to get you on a powerful five-cup a day tea steeping habit, which she passionately believes is one of the best ways to prevent this terrible disease.

Maria Uspenski is the CEO of The Tea Spot. She is a mechanical engineer by trade and the innovative force behind The Tea Spot's Steepware designs. Maria is a cancer survivor on a mission to spread wellness through tea and lives in Boulder, Colorado.

The playful and imaginative trend of miniature & fairy gardening caught fire in the craft world several years ago, and it has only grown in popularity. It's the quick-and-easy—and super cute—way to become a gardener! These gardens are a big hit with kids, who love to imagine the magical creatures that enjoy the garden when the kids are asleep or away from home. Incredible Stories from Space

A Behind-the-Scenes Look at the Missions Changing Our View of the Cosmos

Nancy Atkinson

Ride along on the journeys in the midst of an amazing era of discovery through the immense and magnificent universe with Nancy Atkinson, editor of Universe Today.

In The Incredible Stories of Modern Space Exploration, Nancy takes readers beyond the surface of what some of the most sophisticated space rovers, orbiters and telescopes are discovering in the sky above. This detailed guide provides information on these missions and the science surrounding them, as well as inside interviews with the scientists and engineers who conceive mission concepts, build the spacecraft, study the data and care for the spacecraft.

From the center of our universe, the Sun, readers will see how the Solar Dynamics Observatory gives us the best look ever at the “star” of our solar system by taking images every 0.75 seconds and how that helps scientists understand the mysteries of its turbulent surface and unseen interior. From there, readers can learn more about other missions that are hot in the news such as the Mars Rover, Kepler and the Search for Other Worlds, the Lunar Reconnaissance Orbiter and Unlocking Jupiter’s Secrets through the Juno spacecraft.

Nancy Atkinson is the editor and writer for Universe Today. She is also a NASA/JPL Solar System Ambassador, and lives in Minnesota.

Black, Pregnant and Loving It

The Comprehensive Pregnancy Guide for Today's Woman of Color

Yvette Allen-Campbell and Dr. Suzanne Greenidge-Hewitt

A complete guide on every stage of pregnancy, from planning ahead to birth, and all stages in between, geared towards modern black women.

Yvette Allen-Campbell and Dr. Suzanne Greenidge-Hewitt have created the ultimate pregnancy guide for today's black woman. Most pregnancy books are geared towards white culture in language and approach as well as health issues. While most of the development is the same regardless of race, there are health and cultural issues specific to women of color. But the biggest point of difference is a book written by black women- an educator and a top doctor – for black women.

Black, Pregnant and Loving It includes information on the specific health issues common to pregnant black women, from hyperventilating to dehydration, as well as skin and hair concerns. You'll learn how to select a doctor or midwife, which diet is best for you and your baby, how to identify your body's needs as well as a month-by-month view of what to expect. In addition, there are also flashbacks to older methods of childbirth and black folk myths and superstitions.

Overall this is a complete pregnancy guide rooted in modern science for the health and well-being of the black community.

Yvette Allen-Campbell is an education administrator in Garden City, New York. She holds an MA degree in Speech and Language Pathology and a Professional Diploma in Educational Administration. She lives in New York.

Dr. Suzanne Greenidge-Hewitt is an accomplished medical doctor and skilled surgeon specializing in Obstetrics and Gynecology. She is a featured guest on the Dr. Oz Show and the founder and director of Woman To Woman OB/GYN. She lives in New Rochelle, New York.

Alternative Baker

Reinventing Desserts with Gluten-Free Grains and Flours

Alanna Taylor-Tobin

Fruit-based desserts that celebrate rich, gluten-free flours for fantastic flavor.

While most gluten-free baking cookbooks simply replace all-purpose wheat flour, usually with white rice, tapioca and potato flours, this book celebrates the wide array of grains, nuts and seeds that add unique texture and flavor to desserts. Recipes oust hard-to-find gums, such as guar and xanthan, and minimize starches, such as corn, tapioca and potato. Alternative Baker highlights lesser-known flours such as millet, oat, buckwheat, chestnut, sorghum and mesquite. These flours provide recipe with superior texture, flavor and nutritional value to boot.

Alternative Baker features fruit-based recipes that range from breakfast breads to pies, tarts, crisps, cobblers, cakes, custards and small treats like cookies and bars. Examples include Cranberry Millet Scones with Vanilla Bean Glaze; Buckwheat, Pear & Walnut Galettes with Salty Honey Caramel; Salty Caramel & Banana Cream Tarts in a Mesquite Crust and Maple Bourbon Peach Cobbler with Brown Butter Biscuits. In addition, the book includes recipes for basics like sauces and accompaniments.

Author Alanna Taylor-Tobin is a classically trained pastry chef who has been developing recipes and techniques for her own gluten sensitivity for more than a decade. Her love of alternative, unrefined flours, sweeteners and organic produce is a product of her upbringing by health-nut hippie parents.

Alanna Taylor-Tobin is a classically trained pastry chef with experience as a professional cook, baker and pastry chef, recipe developer, food photographer, writer and blogger.
