Baseball Immortal: Jackie Robinson

A Life in Quotes

Danny Peary

This book uses quotes to narrate the life and career of Jackie Robinson, the first African American major league baseball player, just in time for Father's Day and his debut's 70th anniversary.

Jackie Robinson was a Hall-of-Fame second baseman for the Brooklyn Dodgers. He was most famous for breaking the baseball color line with the Dodgers on April 15, 1947, though he was also known for his strong character and political activism that contributed to the Civil Rights Movement. Every year on April 15, all players in the MLB recognize Jackie Robinson Day by wearing Jackie's number, 42. He was an inspiration to players, fans and underdogs around the world.

With Baseball Immortal: Jackie Robinson, Danny Peary takes you on an incredible, unique journey to a time of great progress in America and some really good baseball. Get a first-hand, 360-degree look at one of America's greatest and most important athletes through his words and the words of those around him - from his outspoken wife, Rachel Robinson, his childhood influencers, fans, other baseball greats and more.

This book is perfect for baseball fans and historians across the country, especially since the book will publish in time for Father's Day gifts. Baseball fans will get an advantage reading about Robinson's life just in time to celebrate major anniversaries of the great player. In 2016 and 2017, the MLB will commemorate the 70th anniversaries of Robinson's first debuts in the minor leagues and in the major leagues with the Dodgers, along with other anniversaries like the 35th anniversary of his induction into the Hall of Fame.

Danny Peary is the author of Baseball Immortal: Derek Jeter. He is a renowned sports and film historian who has published twenty-four books. He collaborated on the biographies of Roger Maris and Gil Hodges, the autobiographies of Ralph Kiner and Shannon Miller, and three books with Tim McCarver-including the bestselling Tim McCarver’s Baseball for Brain Surgeons and Other Fans. Jaya Saxena

A contributor to Serious Eats and Gothamist made it her mission to dig up the best and vintage recipes from glamorous and now defunct restaurants in this nostalgic celebration of great food.

Jaya Saxena takes readers on a tour around the country, into some of the once most popular restaurants in America to discuss the history and how-to's of their most infamous dishes. It is sort of vintage meets foodie.

Discover the story behind the Blintzes at Ashkenaz's Deli in Chicago to Paoli's Baked Caneloni in San Francisco.

The Real Professional Football Training Program

This Proven Fitness Plan—the Actual Workouts Currently Used by NFL Stars—Will Get You and Your Team to the Next Level

Abdul Foster

Renowned sports trainer and brother to Pro Bowler Arian Foster shares his state-of-the-art program he uses to train elite NFL stars with high school football players and coaches.

For years, Abdul Foster has been training his brother Arian Foster, a well-known and talented running back for the Houston Texans, and other NFL stars. In this book, Abdul presents his proprietary, effective and sought after training program that helps these NFL stars succeed. It features tips and advice from current NFL players who have gone through Abdul’s training—Andre Johnson, Glover Quin Jr., James Ihedigbo, Brandon Lafell, Duane Brown, Owen Daniels and Darius Slay.

This book is a must-have for every serious high school football player and coach. It is scalable, realistic and achievable for youths with determination, desire to excel and dreams of an NFL career. In fact, Foster said he would have made the pros if he had had this program growing up — and his brother did!

Abdul calls it the "new wave" of football training, a modern approach less about over-training and more about training smarter. It's not until young talented players reach the NFL that they learn how to train properly with exercises that develop flexibility, speed & agility, stability and full-body strength that makes them dynamite players on the field. This book bridges the gap by giving kids the exercises and workouts the NFL stars use—adapted if necessary for younger athletes—information on preventing and recovering from injury, and a nutritional guide. This book is the perfect gift for any young football player with big dreams.

Abdul Foster is a professional trainer, fitness coach and counselor to many of the top professional athletes in the world. He is the owner of IX Innovations gym. He has trained football stars like Arian Foster (his brother), Andre Johnson, Duane Brown, Antonio Smith, Owen Daniels, Danarius Moore and more. He was recently one of the Performance Coaches for the NFL Combine in Los Angeles, California. He lives in Houston, Texas.
